Dedication

THE RECALL of 1930 is a respectful testimonial to the ability and efficiency of

Captain William McChesney Yarbrough

who, as Post-Adjutant, has faithfully served this Academy for more than a score of years. Asking no more of others than he himself freely gives, he scrupulously performs his many duties. Keen executive, true friend, his real worth is appreciated by both students and faculty. A charter member of the "Old Guard," he has stood shoulder to shoulder with the principals in the creation of the "Greater A. M. A."

The Spirit of Augusta

By H. C. S.—A. M. A.

With highborn faith, I'll bid the world to try me,
Nor plead my youth's unseasoned ken and skill;
Shall mountains stand high-tow'ring to defy me,
Their lifted heights shall not oppose my will.
I'll 'wake from dreams, all dreams that have misled me;
Awake, I'll seek for living truths around;
I'll eat more wholesome fare than doubt hath fed me,
Nor sleep with fear upon the naked ground.

With faith that blinds, I'll ask great odds of distance,
Demanding, take such odds—my righteous due;
I'll hold to right, whose liberal assistance
Shall free me for life's nobler tasks to do;
I'll follow trail that leads to godlier living,
And feel the thrill of soothing others' pains;
I'll share my life with them, what though such giving
May lead me oft' unto the lowly plains.

With shielding faith, I'll use the moment current,
Tomorrow's dawn shall not weigh on my soul;
Should failure strike, it shall prove no deterrent—
No thrust shall blind my eye to truth's high goal.
I'll not rush in where rashness bids the going,
But enter hell at duty's clarion call;
I'll seek the heights, nor shall I fear, well knowing
That right hath not whereunto it may fall.

With faith that frees, I'll make old chains to mind me
That slav'ry binds through fear's beclouded view;
I'll scan the upward trails of life and find me
That trail to heights where passed some soldier true.
Rich prizes wait for them that carve the beauty
Of faithful work, and laugh at doubt's poor wraith:
The hour demands the soul that's true to duty—
This is the age of them that still have faith!

All for one - one for all

"In this tranquil sanctuary the burdened spirit found repose."

*" . . . Here dwells youth, perennial
As immortality."*

*"The trees, the shrubs, the velvet lawn
All clothed in summer's green."*

FIRST CLASSMEN

To the Class of 1930

They leave us with regrets and tears,
And with sadness in each heart,
For the happy thoughts of the last few years
Make them reluctant to depart.

And when our corps starts to disband,
For some the die is cast,
And then we'll all extend a helping hand
To the men of the graduating class.

And when the drum is quiet again
And its muffled beat has passed,
And the mournful bugle strain
Echoes lifelike, from the blast,

They stand motionless and staid
On the ground they've loved so well,
And the "Auld Lang Syne" is played,
Bidding them a fond farewell.

SECOND CLASSMEN

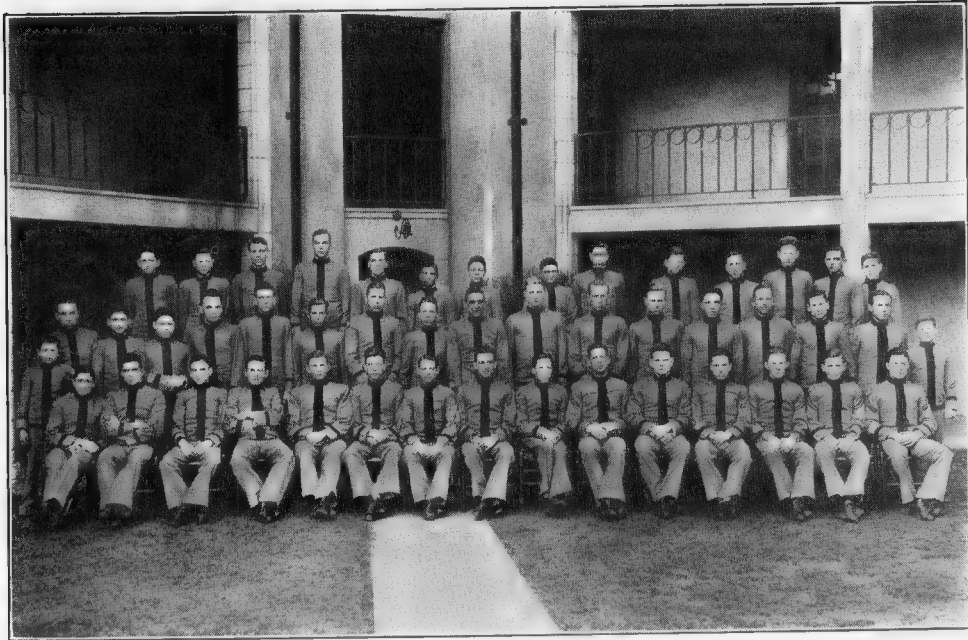

Second Class History

When one goes through the same routine for three years, he is compelled to become somewhat settled. Such is the case with our class. For thirty-six months we have traveled and lived under Augusta's Colors, and now we pride ourselves in our self-possession and quiet accomplishments. During our career here we have met and overcome innumerable obstacles, both on the field and in the classroom, and can say without vanity that to us belongs no small part of the glory due to the Academy for her successful venture during the past three sessions. As the records show, many of the past and present stars in every department have had their niches in the Second Class Hall of Fame. We only now await, next year, when we shall crown our careers by the reception of the sheepskin and seal—the final token of success.

THIRD CLASSMAN

Third Class History

Although many have said that the first two years are the hardest, the class of 1932 wishes to disapprove this statement.

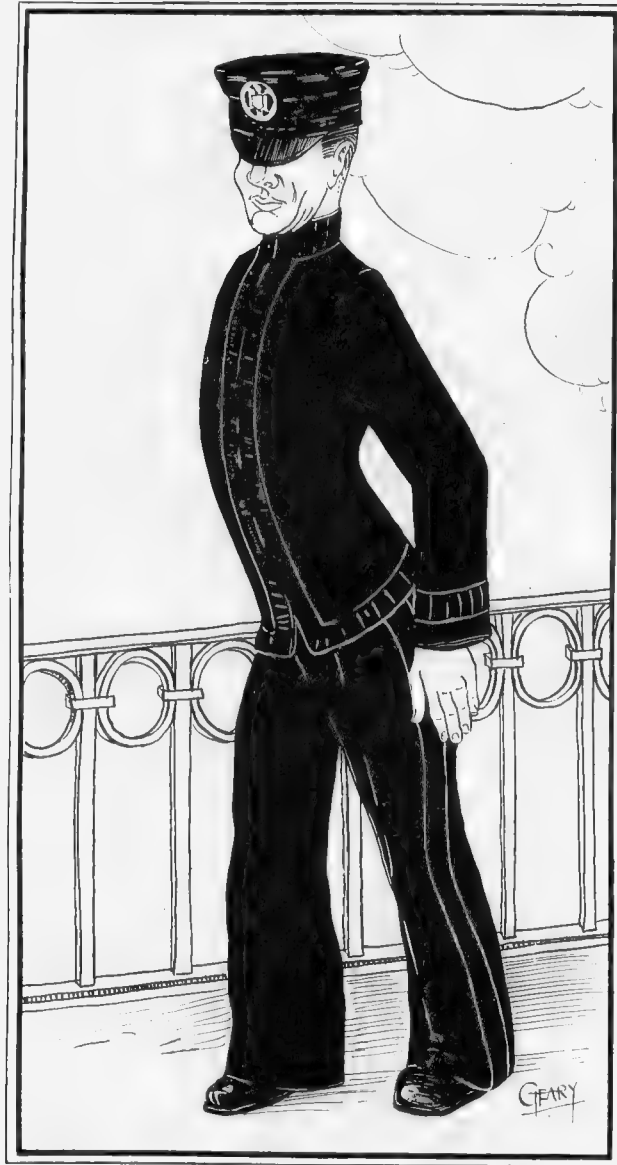

As we look back on the past two years we realize that our labor has not been all labor nor have we suffered from lack of entertainment.

Many of the most valuable athletes in Augusta have come from among us. These men have brought honor to themselves, to the class, and to the school. In the years to come we hope that they will continue to exhibit the same fine sportsmanship and courage that we have witnessed in them on the athletic field.

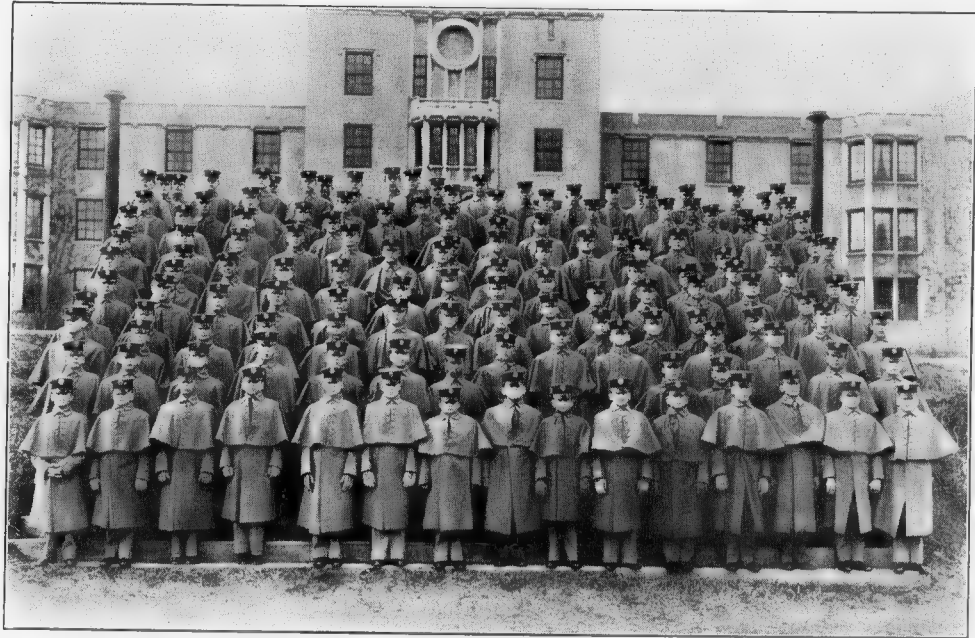

We have also held our own academically. A large number of the best scholars in the school are third classmen and we contribute our share to the fresh air list every month.

Our first year was marked as a banner year in that we did much toward winning the Honor School Rating for Old Augusta. This is an honor which has been sought in vain for many years by other Corps.

Now that half of our history as Augusta Keydets has been made we feel that we have added but little to the fame of our Alma Mater. You may be sure that we are going to do better in the years to come, though.

RATS

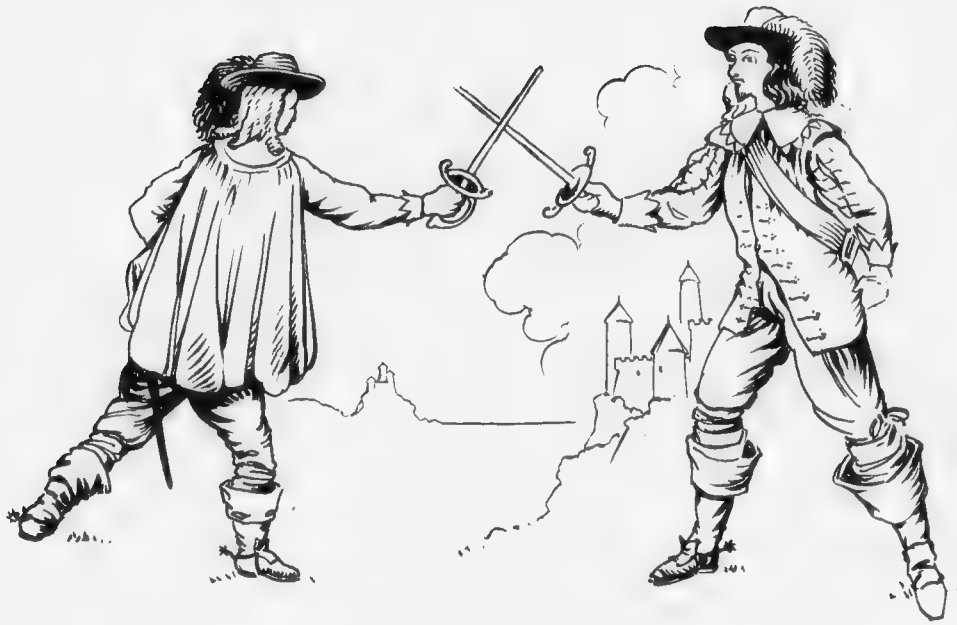

Fourth Class History

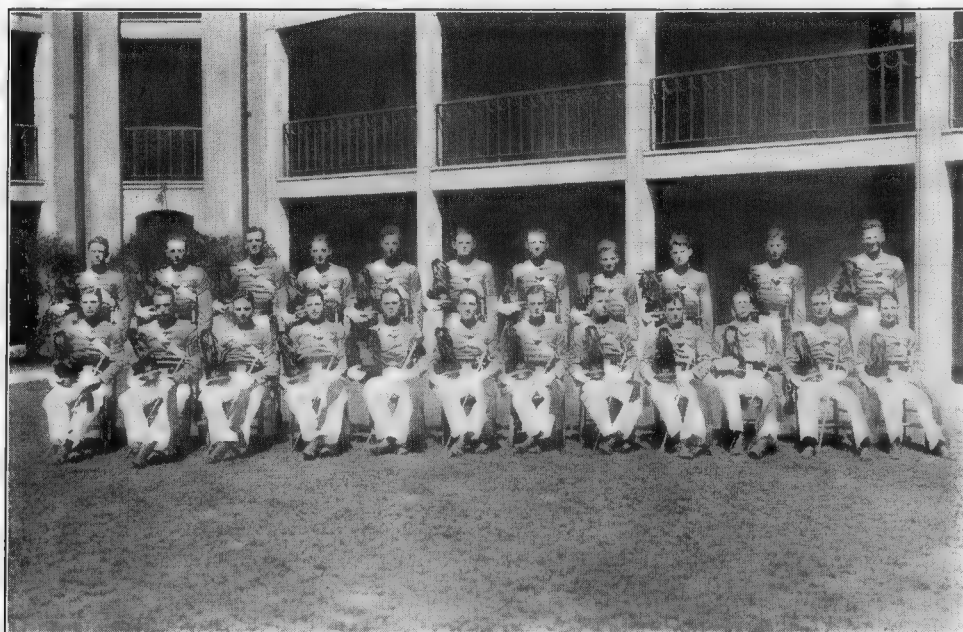

Everyone knows that the rank of, "New Cadets" is not overawing, but we, the "Rats" of 1929-1930 have realized ourselves to be the lowest of the low. It is conceded that we all must have our ups and downs and we have experienced a whole year of downs. For this reason our class looks forward with pleasure to the day when our ups start and incidentally our third class year.

The first impression which we had of A. M. A. was hazy and distorted. Everything seemed strange and we were in a perpetual daze. At first we were hustled to and fro. We received numerous cuts and digs but were impressed more by the attitude of the upper classmen than by their actions. Weeks passed. We found our place and kept it! Everything ran smoothly—football, exams, furlough, basketball, etc. The "Rats" contributed many to the ranks of the mighty, both athletically and academically. Although we now are remembered only for our mistakes, later some of our names will be conjured with.

Now it is over. Our first year is finished; but we await September when we shall return to Augusta. Then and only then we shall prove our worth both to ourselves and our Alma Mater. Our year of subserviency is finished. We are about to embark on a new course. May we emerge with all sails set, successful and wise.

Football Resume

The nineteen twenty-nine football season was an unqualified success. Our four big rivals, Episcopal High, Woodberry, Greenbrier, and Fishburne were defeated in clean, hard fought games that gave us clear-cut victories. The remaining six games resulted in two defeats, two canceled games, and two victories. College Topics, the University of Virginia newspaper, did not select an all-state preparatory school team as it usually does, but the Woodberry Oracle selected an all-state team on which we placed two men, Bovee, center, and Bach half.

Much credit should be given the Oracle for conducting in a thoroughly systematic and unbiased manner its selection of an all-state team. This involved much effort on the part of its staff, and these young gentlemen demonstrated that they were capably wide awake to a journalistic need of the day in their field. They also showed unusually broad vision and courage, and deserved better co-operation than we gave.

But, to get back to our football season. The cold statistics are far inadequate in telling about it. To do so adequately, we should begin with the early training period two weeks before the regular school, when about fifty candidates, including the letter men from last year—Bach, Bovee, Copps, Malone, Kelsey, and Walker reported for practice and continue, stopping to emphasize such high points as the big games, by relating the gradual development until the night after Thanksgiving, when Major Roller in a most appropriate manner presented to the winners their coveted "A," and to the whole squad the sincere thanks of the corps. Nor should we neglect in this narrative to tell of the upsurging of the old Augusta spirit throughout the corps which supported to a man this squad whose every effort was directed to winning our four major contests. Nor could we neglect to dwell on the leadership, personality, and football ability of our captain, Bach, or of our assistant captain, Copps, who willed between the halves that Woodberry must fall, and went in, in the second half, and made his willing an actuality; or of the wonderful spirit of the whole squad. This narrative would include, also, Weisker, who made the opponents remember of hearing about an eel-hipped renegade named Grange, and Bovee, California's sorrel-topped husky who sent the opponents' centers home talking to themselves; Kelsey, Malone, a wee bit of Ireland; Goodwin, Nuckols, Nicholas, McCallum, Brewster, Preston, Mosely, Walker, Founds, and so on, individually through the squad that helped make football history at Augusta.

So, since this is a resumé of our great season and not a novel on the romance of the gridiron, we shall proceed to a brief game by game account of the season.

The V. M. I. Junior Varsity was the opponent for our opening game, in which many substitutes were made. The team functioned well both offensively and defensively. V. M. I. presented a clean, manly group of individuals, but lacked team play. Weisker and Mosely shared the honors for spectacular playing by breaking away for long runs and for touchdowns, Weisker on a kickoff and Mosely on a short punt. Score—A. M. A., 20; V. M. I., 0.

The next Saturday the W. and L. Varsity was defeated in a hard fought game in which the first half honors went to A. M. A., and the second half honors were gathered by W. and L. This game was hard fought throughout. The Notre Dame shift plays of Washington and Lee were hard to solve, but an ever alert A. M. A. line was able to keep the score down below the danger point. The defensive play of Kelsey, Goodwin, and of Bovee was outstanding, while Bach bore the brunt of the A. M. A. ball carrying assignment. Score—A. M. A., 19; W. and L., 12.

The team went to Alexandria the next Saturday and found in Episcopal High School a much better team than the score indicates. The defensive line play for A. M. A. was superb. The offensive teamwork for the first half was very poor; however, the team got together between the halves and went into the second half and piled up a score of twenty-nine to nothing for the evening. Bach again starred.

Then came the day for which we had been preparing, since the first practice. Woodberry had won twelve straight games from Augusta in the preceeding years and had, the year before, added insult to injury by spoiling our otherwise perfect season by the score of twenty to nothing, the worst defeat an A. M. A. team had suffered in the last five years.

The Orange team decided to receive, and with machine-like precision worked the ball down to our ten-yard line. Then the going for them got rough. They tried a forward pass and completed it, and Malone knocked the receiver out of bounds on our one-yard line. Weisker punted out, and again the Orange team got well into our territory before surrendering the ball on downs. This was repeated time and time again. The Woodberry team, led by Lassiter, their star ball carrier, threatened our goal line throughout the first half, except for a short time near the end of the half when Malone grounded a pass in their zone. This was A. M. A.'s only bid for a score in the half. As yet Copps had not carried the ball from scrimmage. As a matter of fact, he had only carried the ball twice in the previous games this season. Score at the half, 0-0.

Woodberry started the half by kicking to Augusta, and then came the avalanche of short plunges by Copps that spelled defeat for them. Without releasing the ball, Augusta marched down the field for a touchdown. The whole team functioned perfectly and rallied around Copps to aid him in this long march over the Woodberry line. Maline's selection of plays was perfect. Woodberry used every effort to stop Copps, and succeeded in gradually slowing his progress on the twenty-yard line, only to see the flying heels of Weisker crossing their goal for the six points that spelled victory for Augusta. The frantic efforts of Woodberry to eke out a win seemed sure to bring results in the fourth quarter, but the Augusta defensive was alert and effectively stopped their passing and running attack. Kelsey stopped what looked like a certain score when he downed Lassiter for a ten-yard loss on an attempted forward pass. The game ended with Augusta in possession of the ball in midfield and sustaining their attack in real touchdown fashion form.

The Woodberry game was costly. Bach was so badly injured that he was unable to play next Saturday, and the whole varsity was badly bruised. Fork Union presented a neat little team that played heads up ball and walked away with a thirteen to six victory. Substitutions for A. M. A. were costly in this game, but our players needed the rest. After scoring a touchdown we were unable to hold that lead. Our passing was very poor and our offensive at times was ragged. A low pass, Malone to Weisker, in the coming moments of the game, lost our only chance to tie the score.

The following Saturday the team started to Winchester to meet S. V. A. Due to trouble with the bus, the team arrived at S. V. A. about 4:45. It was raining very hard. The S. V. A. team had been dressed for the game since three o'clock, our boys were worn out, the spectators had fled before the downpour so, much to our mutual regret, the game was cancelled.

The team and the corps were on an edge for the game the following Saturday at Greenbrier. The year before the third quarter ended with Augusta holding the small end of a 19 to 6 score, and by superhuman effort they came from behind to win, 20 to 19, too close for comfort. We were determined to make a more decisive win this year, despite the fact that Greenbrier had a clean slate and had only been scored on once.

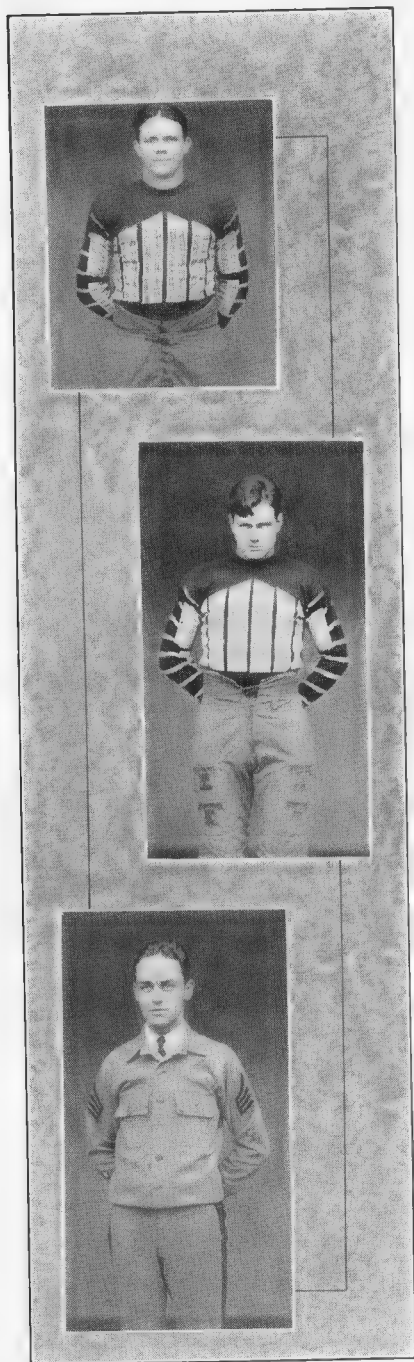

It was a grim-faced and determined Augusta team that waited for the kick-off. Through their minds ran the picture of the corps back home, those buddies who had formed two howling, cheering, torch-bearing lines, between which the team had ridden the night before from the barracks to the front arch. Captain Bach, our speedy, all-state, triple-threat back, sat on the sidelines nursing an injured ankle which he had received in the Woodberry game. Malone, our brainy little quarterback, sat beside him nursing a sprained shoulder.

The kick-off was low and hard, but Brewster, our right guard, was on the job. He tucked it away and negotiated about thirty of the sixty yards toward Greenbrier's goal before he was tackled. Founds, substituting for Malone, immediately took advantage of this great break, and Augusta scored before Greenbrier collected their thoughts. Bach was sent in to keep them on the run. The team as a whole functioned beautifully. Preston, substituting for Goodwin, who was injured, proved to be the defensive "find" of the day. Bovee played fine ball. The Greenbrier team was simply dazed. Their great back, Winter, broke away for a sixty-yard run for a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game. This was too late, however, as we already had thirty-six points.

Augusta, with many substitutes in the line-up and crippled from the Greenbrier game, was unable to stop Massanutten the next Saturday. The Woodstock team revenged itself for the previous year's defeat. They presented a smooth working team, which played clean football for a well earned victory of twelve to nothing. Early in the game they caught our defense napping, and got away for a long pass and a twenty-yard run for a touchdown. We were unable to catch up or hold our then present condition. In the second half, they scored again. We were unable to get started against their tight defense.

The next Saturday our game with Shenandoah College was cancelled by them, due to a heavy snowfall on Friday.

Thanksgiving, which means to Augusta, Fishburne, was an ideal football day. The team was ready and waiting. Fishburne had a poor season, but Fishburne always seems able to play their best ball against Augusta. They were able to score two touchdowns this year, but we could afford that. The irresistible drive of the Blue and White accounted for thirty-two points. Weisker on two occasions ran through the entire team; once from the scrimmage for sixty yards, and once from the kick-off. It would be folly to credit an individual with the honor of this game. Augusta's line and backs were in there every minute, and all contributed their share to the thirty-two to twelve victory that lowered the curtain on one of Augusta's great seasons.

BACH

CAPTAIN—HALFBACK

Playing his third year, Bach led his men in most every game of the season. Bach played a steady, consistent game all season, and could back up a line as well as he could tear one open. His sensational work against Woodberry Forest marked him with one of the All-State men. We are very sorry to lose a man of his calibre.

COPPS

ASSISTANT CAPTAIN—FULLBACK

It is impossible to give an adequate sketch of "Mike's" work in so few lines. Whenever a yard, five yards, or ten yards, were needed, "Mike" was given the ball and usually got there with it. With his powerful build and knowledge of the game, "Mike" never met his superior. "Mike" will not be with us next year, but we hope that he keeps up his wonderful playing for which he is noted throughout the state.

LAMBERT

Bill was an excellent manager. He took the brunt of all the work connected with the team and devoted his time to their welfare and comfort. He performed his duties with a will that made him liked by all the team.

MALONE

QUARTERBACK

"Pat" was equally successful in hitting the line on circling the ends. Always seeming to know just what play to use, he could be counted upon to make the best of every situation. "Pat" leaves us this year, and we feel sure that in the coming years will gain even greater fame than he had at Augusta.

WEISKER

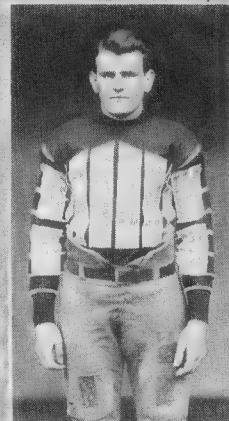

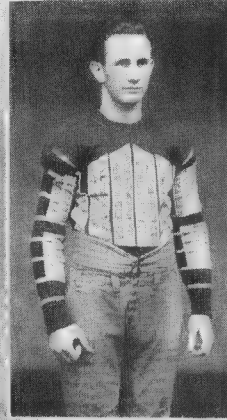

HALFBACK

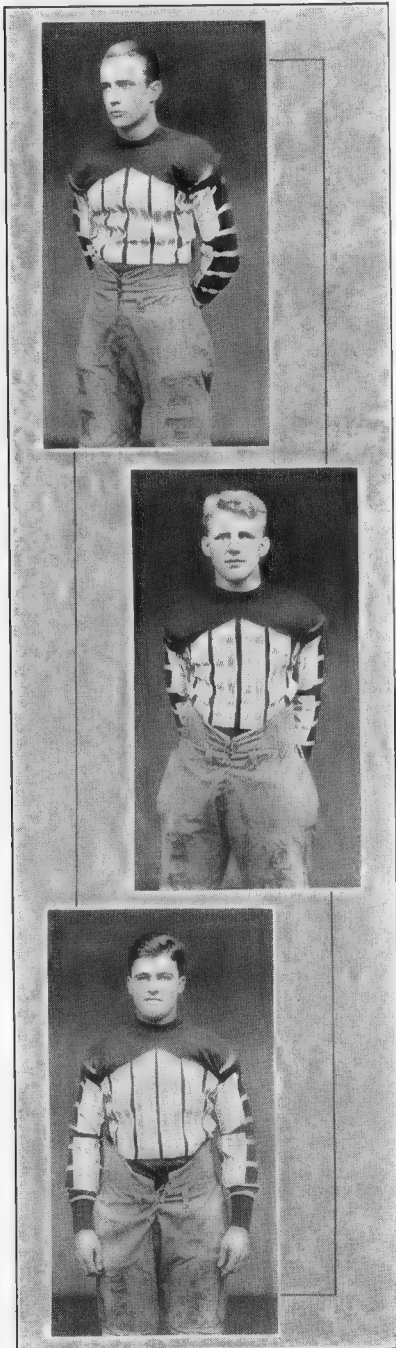

Weisker came to us this year with an enviable reputation, which he more than lived up to. Through the season, opposing teams soon learned to respect the driving power, which made him most difficult to stop. We are sorry Weisker will not be with us next year, for his place is a hard one to fill.

KELSEY

RIGHT END

"Don" played a steady, dependable brand of football throughout the season. He could snag passes from literally any position, and he successfully smeared any plays directed over his end. In nearly every game Don's runs after he had intercepted passes were spectacular. Don leaves us this year, and we can not express our regret with words to see him leave.

"Bunny" has a reputation of being a hard tackler, and when he tackles the opposition realizes it is no tea party. Bunny fought his way from the bottom (Minnows) where he enlisted for an end position five years ago. His steadfastness and sturdiness helped mightily in his career.

BOVEE

CENTER

When Gene was told to make a hole in the opposing line, he generally did it, and did it well. Sad but certain for the opponent whom Gene removed, for he usually "stayed removed." Gene was a real asset to the team, and we are sorry to see him depart for the last time, this year, but we wish him success in his future activities.

TANNEHILL

GUARD

Graham was another Staunton talent who came to us with something of a football past. He was never a talkative player, and it is a fact that he never spoke more than four words a game. With him assuring us of his return we know that our line will be strengthened.

WALKER

HALFBACK

"Ab" is small, but he generally reached the goal he was after. Though he played under the handicap of an injured shoulder, he was always ready to carry the ball for a gain. In the Greenbrier game he showed what he was made of. Although it is uncertain, we hope that "Ab" will decide to come back next fall.

PRESTON

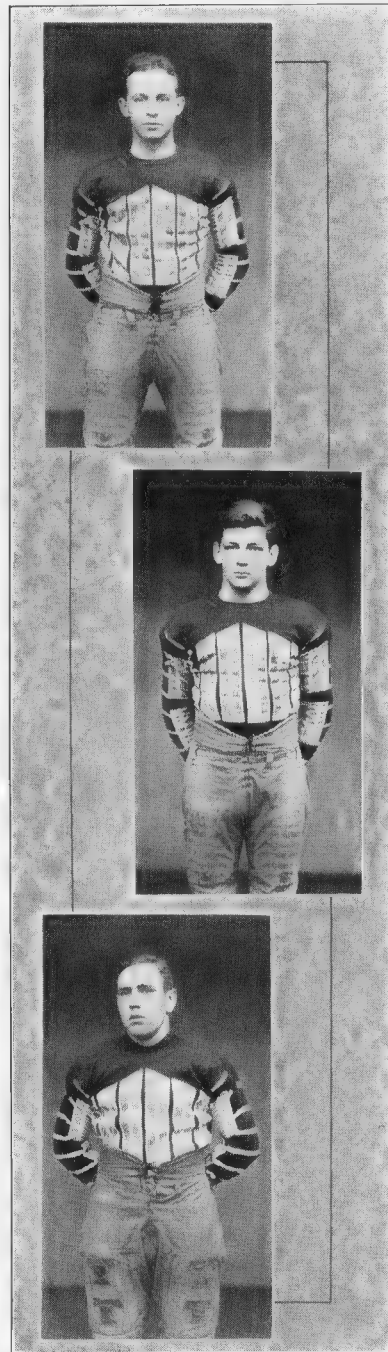

END

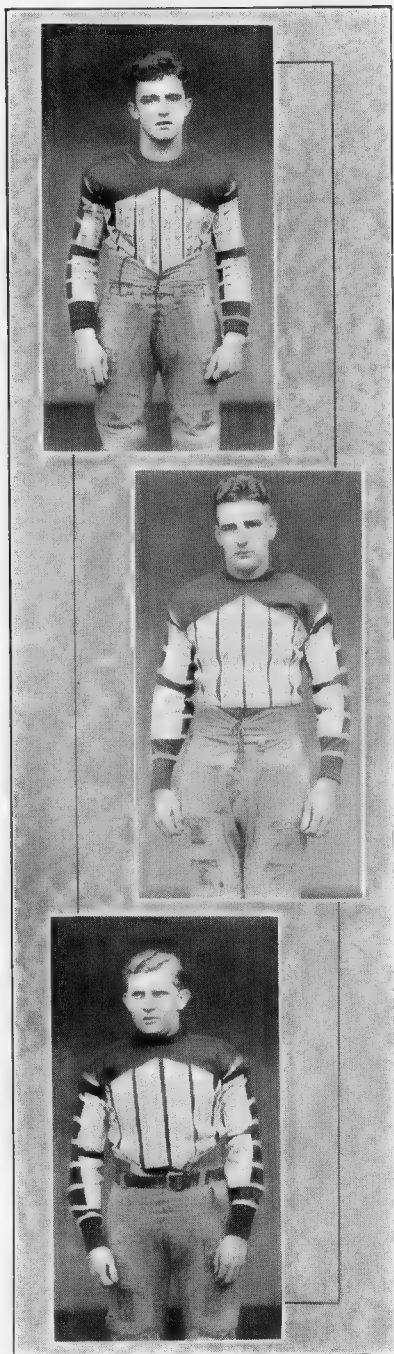

Preston was one of our best reserve ends, and proved his worth by playing some in nearly every game. His position as end was, indeed, a contested one, and it was this stiff opposition that brought out the real stuff of which Preston has a liberal share. Now he is the proud possessor of a well deserved "A." Preston, we certainly hope you will be with us next year.

McCALLUM

GUARD

"Mac" was without a doubt a clean, hard fighter, and caused many an opponent constant worry. In spite of his short, heavy build, he was one of the first men down the field on the kick-off. "Mac" could block or make a hole in the line, and always got through and got his man. It will be hard to fill the vacancy left by a hard worker like "Mac."

FOUND

HALFBACK

"Mel" was one of the fastest halfbacks in the state. Aside from this, he was the undisputed lightweight, and the pluckiest little half in Virginia. Many were the yards that he gained for his team, and we especially note the ninety yards he ran for a touchdown in the Greenbrier game.

NICHOLAS

TACKLE

"Nick" came to us this year with a fine record as a football player, which he more than lived up to. He never did any spectacular playing, but when a hole was needed, "Nick" was always ready to make it, and usually it was made. We are expecting even greater things of him next year.

NUCKOLS

GUARD

"Dee" was without a doubt a valuable man to our team, as he was always there to get his man. He was a steady, hard-going guard, ever alert to break up the opponents' plays. In the Woodberry game it took three men to tame him, and yet he was always on his man. We hope "Dee" will be with us next year.

MOSELY

FULLBACK

Bill was another Kentucky talent who came to us with a football record. During the last two years he has certainly proven this to us. We are sorry to hear that Bill is leaving us, but before he leaves we want to wish him best of luck, and we are sure some college is getting a valuable man.

BARNES

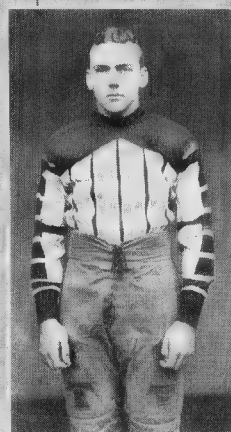

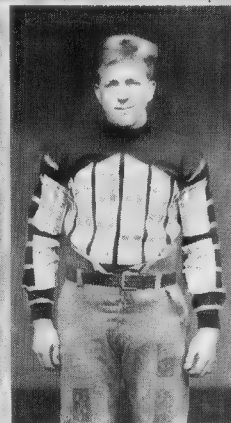

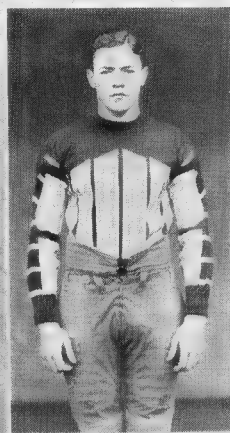

CENTER

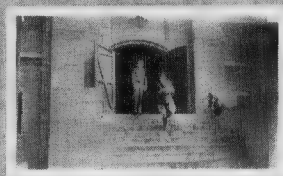

Carl was certainly subjected to some severe competition last season. His position as center was surely a contested one, and it was hard fighting that put him among the men to receive the coveted "A." We are glad to say Carl will be back with us again next year.

BREWSTER

GUARD

Clinton was a new man with us this year, and he certainly proved to us that he was a hard fighting guard. When a block was needed he was always there to hold out the opposing team. His work in the Fishburne game is something we must not overlook. We are glad to say he will be with us next year.

Basketball 1930

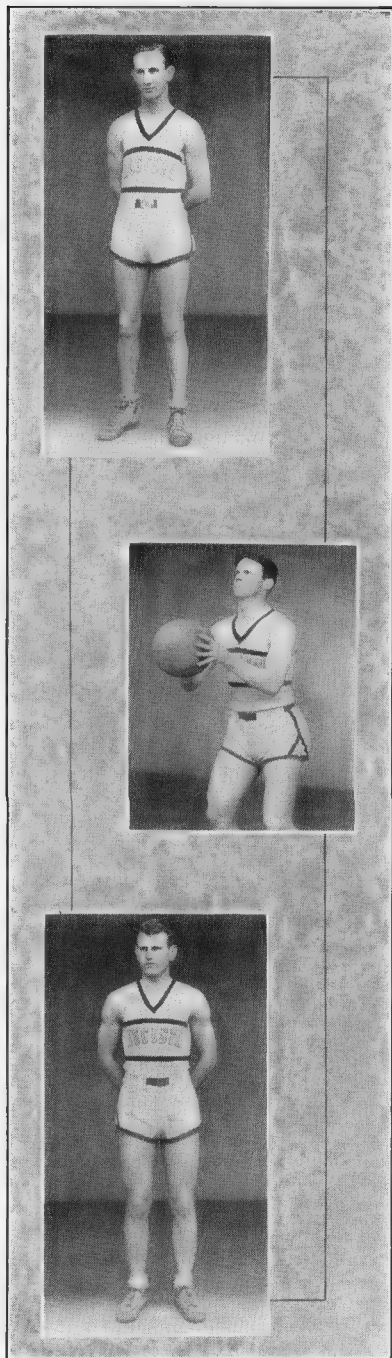

MISS TAYLOR

Augusta's basketball for the season of 1929-30 may be considered as successful, although a large percent of the games were lost. About twenty games were played, consisting principally of prep schools and college freshman teams. A fast brand of basketball was played by the cadets, and much teamwork displayed. Only three letter men returned from last year's squad. Augusta broke even with their old time rival, Fishburne, winning one game and losing one. Of all the games played, about the most exciting was the one with E. H. S., played at the University of Virginia. The game throughout was nip and tuck.

When the final whistle sounded the score was tied 25 all, and at the same time a double foul committed. The E. H. S. player tried for a free throw, which was unsuccessful. Weisker, for the cadets, took his free throw and made it good. Thus the score stood: Augusta 26, E. H. S. 25.

The boys showed great interest throughout the entire season. Always on the job fighting until the last whistle, which is always characteristic of Augusta's sons. Fifty percent of the games were won, and the coaches consider the season a success when looking back over the competition.

Much of the credit for this year's team goes to the two coaches, Captains Hodges and Roderick. Without their constant efforts nothing could have been accomplished.

MALONE

CAPTAIN

The result of a splendid team belongs in a large measure to our able, fast thinking, dependable Captain Pat. He was always at the right time at the right place, and his brilliant passes and long shots baffled many teams. He fully demonstrated his fitness as a leader. He has the fighting spirit of a man who never says die.

BACH

ASSISTANT CAPTAIN

"Stan" was one of the main stars of the team and a hard, clean fighter. He was always on the alert breaking up opponents' passes and dribbles. Stan even outdid his basketball work of the previous years. He had that shooting eye, that never ending endurance which carried the team on many times when defeat was staring them in the eye. We are sorry that Bach will not be with us next year, but we wish him the best of luck.

WEISKER

GUARD

Without Weisker's help at guard our opponents would have scored many more points than they did. The brilliant work at breaking up shots and always guarding the basket made him the outstanding player. He never stopped fighting until the very end of the game, and he was always ready and prepared for what came his way. We are sorry to say that Weisker will not be back with us next year. Good luck, Weisker.

SALE

CENTER

"Sunny's" long reach on the tip-off always enabled the team to get a fast start towards the goal. He worked down the floor surely and swiftly, enabling the team to score many shots. We were surprised at the improvement that Sunny showed this year over last, and the able player he became after his three years of work. He did great work in getting loose from his man and working up the floor to make the sure shots which added a great deal to the high score of this year.

MOSELEY

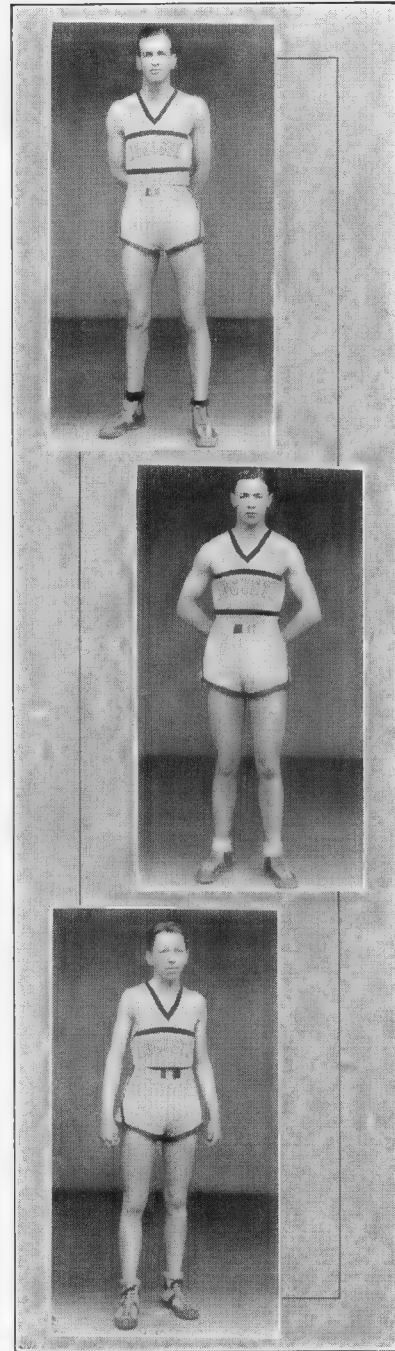

RUNNING GUARD

Moseley gave us all a surprise this year in his basketball ability. This was his first year out, but he soon turned into a hard grinding player, one whom the team could always depend on at the right moment. He caused many an opponent constant worry by his persistent playing. We hope that Moseley will be back with us next year.

LATHROP

FORWARD

We were not surprised when Lathrop made his letter this year and that he was a great asset to the team. He always put all he had in the game and wore his opponents out trying to keep up with him. Time after time he would evade his man and slip in tight places to help the team towards the basket. We sincerely hope that he will be with us again next year.

JACOB

FORWARD

The school and the team owe a great deal to Jacob in that he always had an encouraging spirit, and was the spirit of the team. He never lost hope, but kept up the fighting spirit, always dribbling and passing towards the goal. His ability for keeping clear of his man and assisting in tight places marked him as an outstanding player. We are glad to say Jacob will be with us again next year.

JORDAN

MANAGER

The basketball team was very fortunate this year in having a very able and efficient manager in Jordan. His burdens and responsibilities he always carried cheerfully and well. Due to his never ending work, the basketball team ran smoothly and efficiently. We are very sorry to lose him next year.

Track

When we look back on the past track season of our Alma Mater, we could discover few teams that could compete successfully with our 1930 team. We can safely say that the 1930 organization has been the highest calibre that has ever fought under the blue and white of Augusta.

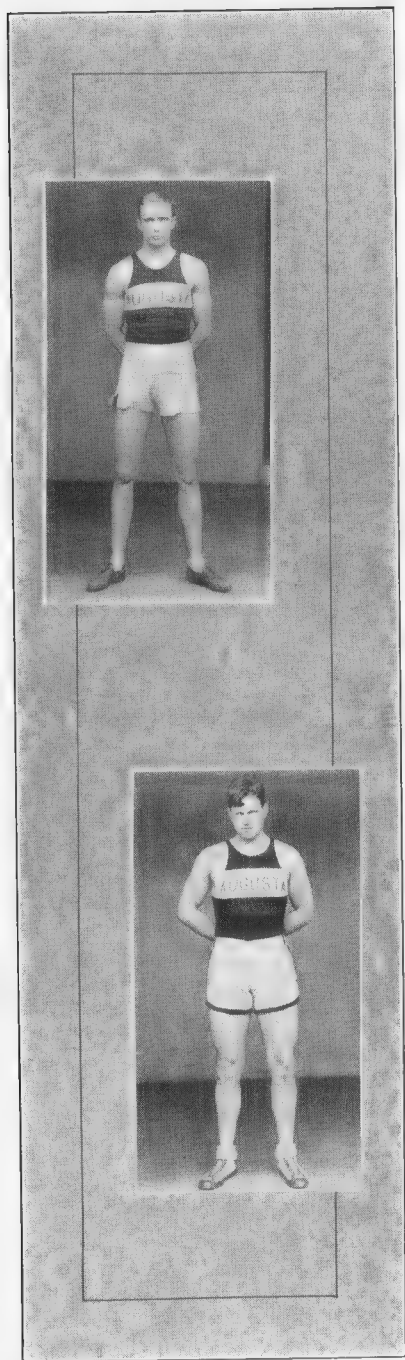

The season opened very auspiciously when we easily took over our old rivals, Fork Union, over to the tune of 77 to 40. Captain Woodard, even though considerably pleased with the outcome of the meet and seeing possibilities for a still better team, commenced putting his men through their paces in real earnestness. The 5th of April proved the results of the past hard training when the A. M. A. boys romped over the H. M. A. harriers by a score of $93\frac{1}{2}$ to $22\frac{3}{4}$.

Rest was not the most sincere ambition of our men, for they entered the Greenbrier camp and defeated them 72 to 45. Goodwin, Weisker, Bowman, and Copps being true to form, easily handled their events in first class style.

V. M. I. came next in line with the intention of showing their younger brothers how to do it, but left A. M. A. with the sting of defeat still fresh in their minds. A. M. A., meantime, rejoicing over their 80 to 37 victory, Augusta taking 11 out of the 13 first places.

Fishburne, eager to avenge several past defeats that Augusta had given them during the progress of the year, met us in Waynesboro with open arms. Little did they know how eager A. M. A. was to add their scalp to their collection. Fishburne was decidedly disillusioned when we came out with the big end of the horn with a 89 to 27 victory.

But all good things have to end somewhere, and finally the 25th of April spelled defeat when we met V. P. I. Freshmen. The fact that we lost the meet was well redeemed by the individual successes of our men and their "never say die" spirit that they displayed. The meet was close and hard fought, but the "Goblets" emerged victorious with the score of $60\frac{1}{2}$ to $56\frac{1}{2}$.

GOODWIN

"Bunny" was one of the most outstanding men we had on our team this year. The team was proud to know him as their captain, and knew they could always count on him to come through with first honors in any event in which he was entered. We regret very much to lose him this year, and feel sure that he will bring honor to his next alma mater.

COPPS

"Mike" could always be counted on to handle the weights. Seldom, if ever, did our big assistant captain face a better man in any of his events. "Mike" also leaves us this year, and the corps wishes him the best of luck in whatever he may do.

FOUND'S

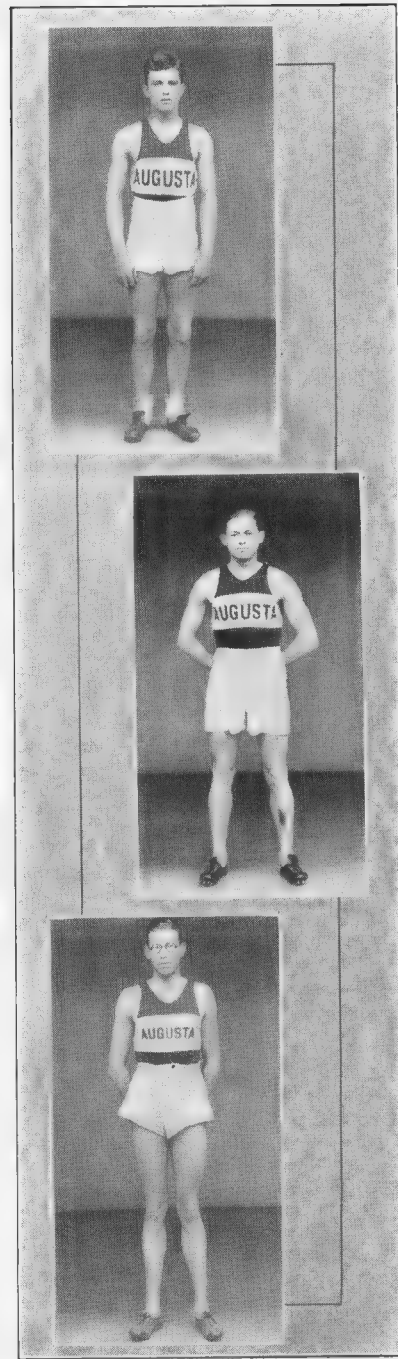

Little "Mel" was back for his second year with the team, and was always in with the best of the high-flyers. We are expecting to hear great big things from him in the future.

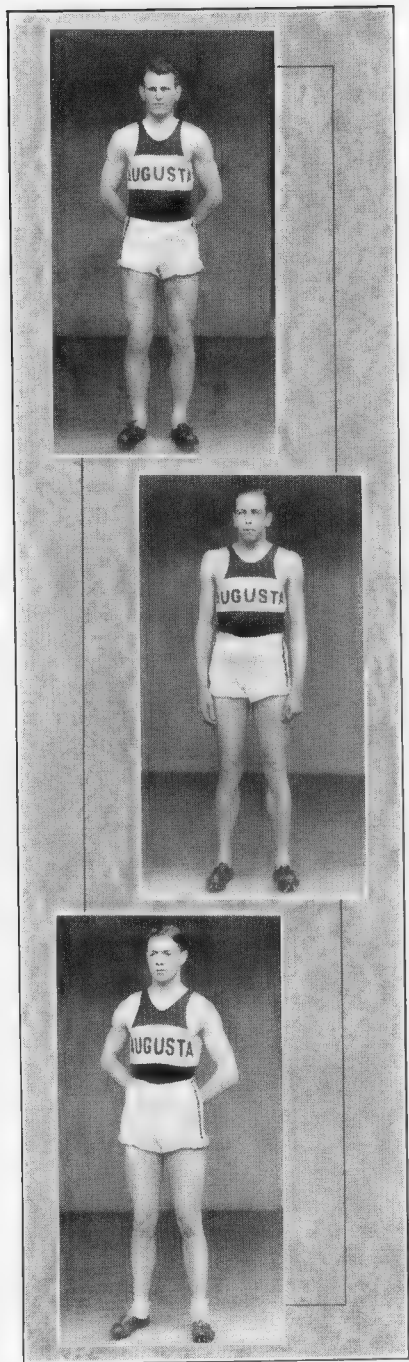

HUMPHREYS

"Ed," another high-flyer, came back for his third year. Ed has been more or less unfortunate this year, due to an injured ankle, but could always be counted on for a place. The pole vaulters for the past two years have seldom been equalled and never bettered, and it is with regret that we watch them pass on to new grounds and new achievements.

BOWMAN

"Wimdy" is undoubtedly one of our outstanding performers. We have always been able to count on him for first place in the mile and half mile. His flying feet have thrown ashes in the faces of practically all of his opponents, and we hope that in the future he may continue to hold up his envious record.

WEISKER

"Whiskey" was initiated to the track team this year, and we are sorry to say that it will be his only year. His fast times in the "century" and two-twenty-yard dash, and his record broad jumps will be long remembered in the records of track achievements of Augusta.

KIRN

"Henry" came out and surprised us this year by consistently taking places in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, and javelin. In the 440 also he can also be counted on for a place. Our only regret is that he did not find himself in this sport in earlier years.

MOSELEY

"Bill," by dint of hard work and much determination, has won himself a worthy place on the team. He surprised us with his ability to high jump and to run the high-hurdles. We hope to be fortunate enough to have him with us again next year.

BOUGEOIS

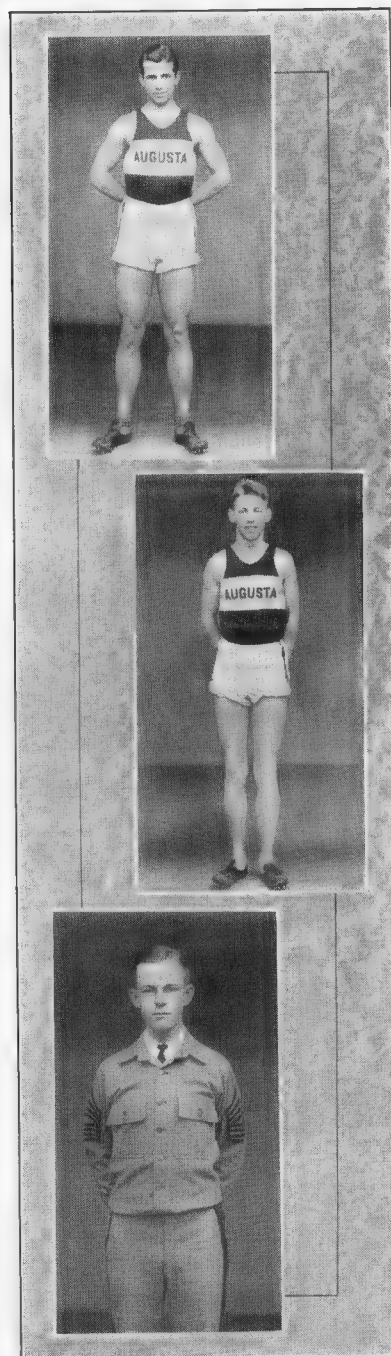

Bougeois is also another new member of the squad this year. Although this is his first year of experience in track, we must compliment him on his achievements. In him we can count on a good man for next season.

TYLER

"John" was another surprise to us this season. After turning out for the exercise, John developed into an excellent team-mate for Bowman. He didn't limit his field to only the mile, but gamely tackled the half mile and made a success of it.

BLETHEN

The track team was very fortunate in having such an efficient man as "Judge" for a manager. This being his fourth year to manage the track team, he knew exactly what to do and when to do it. Always being on the job, "Judge" made one of Augusta's best managers. We know that we will feel his loss greatly next year, and wish him success wherever he goes.

Baseball Resume

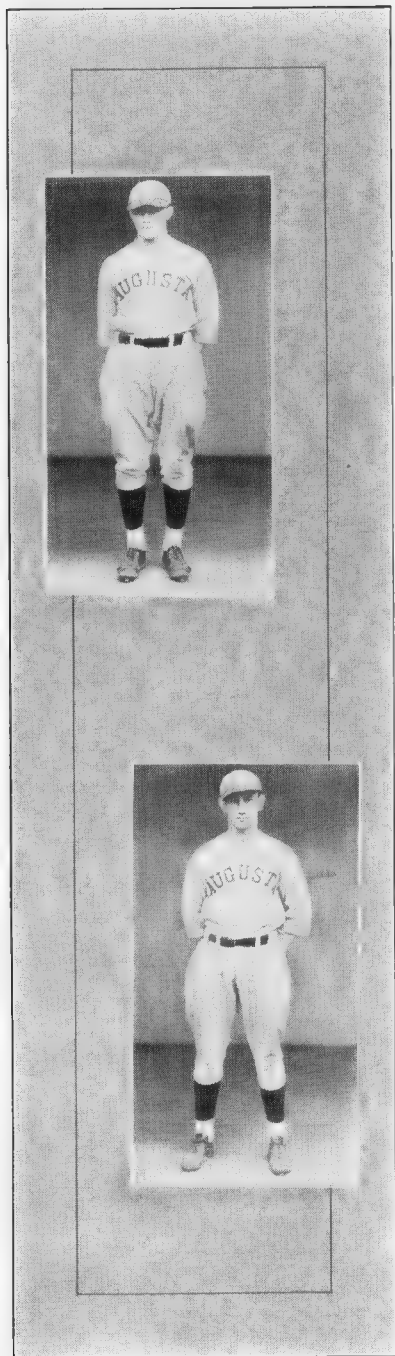

Better baseball teams have represented Augusta than the 1930 team—as have also poorer teams. As we go to press, the team has won three games and lost four.

People at times lose sight of the purpose of school and college baseball. They sometimes expect boys to turn in professional plays compared to those of the Major Leagues' ball players. That, of course, is impossible.

Four letter men—Kelsey, Malone, Berry, and Shreckhise, the former being captain-elect—answered the first call for baseball, and they have formed the nucleus around which the team has been built. Penn, Ramsey, Muddell, Barnes, Slem, Clark, Bruce, and Davilla have appeared in various games, and all have turned in a very creditable performance from time to time.

The team has been an ideal one to work with, and for. Always were they ready to attempt anything their coach asked them, which, after all, is far more important than winning any number of ball games.

To be a team player and not an individualistic one is something that all boys have not yet learned. However, the writer, as coach of the baseball team, can very truthfully say he has never once during the season had to contend with other than a happy concord of boys who, trying their best to win, would fail from time to time, yet always they maintained their morale and endeavored to do better the next game.

"DON" KELSEY

SECOND BASE

Donald, the captain of our team this year, played an excellent game until he had the misfortune of breaking his leg sliding into third in the Fishburne game. He is the clean-up man, and can always be counted on to fill that place and send the man on base home. His baseball record almost equals his football record, and that means something. Don is without a doubt the fastest man on the team, and he surely burns up the bases. Don is leaving us next year, and we wish him all the success in the world.

"PAT" MALONE

THIRD BASE

"Pat" is the assistant captain of our team this year, and it looks like he is the best prospect for next year's captain, because he will grace our team next year. Pat plays with equal ease infield or outfield. He plays centerfield just as well as he plays third base, but this year we need him more on third base than in centerfield. His hits usually travel to center or left field, and they're all clean hits, and his batting average reaches well upward. When he runs a base it looks like a cloud of smoke. He must get his speed from carrying the pigskin. "Pat" is best known by the fact that he seldom lets one pass him along third.

"JIM" BERRY

SHORT STOP

For two years Berry did excellent work on third base, stopping all of those hot base liners. But this year we needed him more on short stop, and there he went. If any position on the diamond needs a fast man who is ever on the alert, then that position in short stop and Berry surely fills that place. When it comes to backing up second or the pitcher, you can always count on him. Berry is not so big, but lamming the pill around for about a three-sacker is his specialty. Augusta's '31 team shall not have the pleasure of having Jim back with them.

"SHREC" SHRECKHISE

CATCHER

"Shrec" is the boy who puts on the big glove and mask and puts himself behind the plate to be ever on the alert and play well his important part. Catching a foul, pegging to second, or getting that man coming from third are a few of the many things he is noted for as our catcher. If the pitcher watches his signals, the batter won't get far. He always knows just what the batter wants. "Shrec" himself always likes to hit the high ones. We will have the misfortune of losing him next year.

WRIGHT

MANAGER

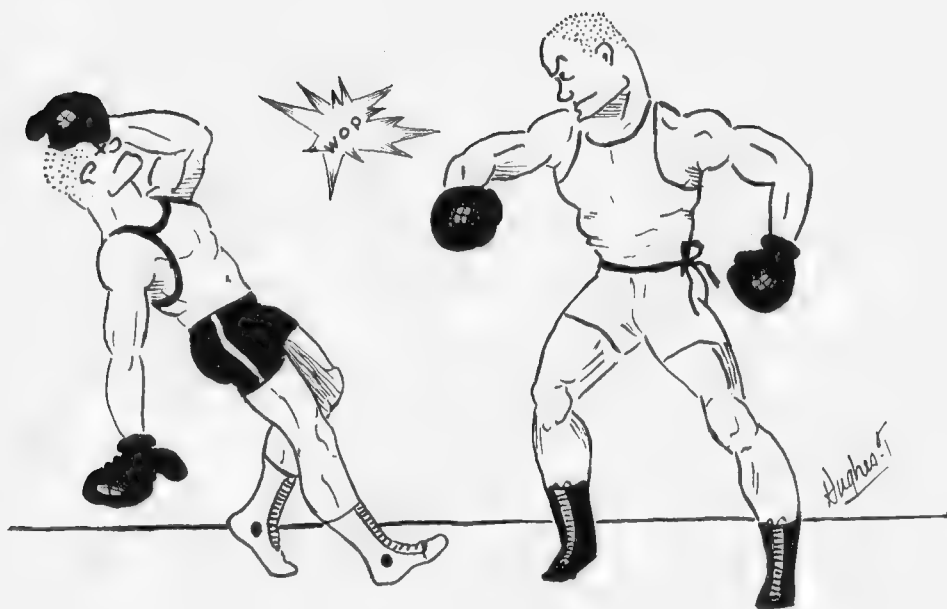

Henry, by his winning smile and persevering work, won for himself, around barracks, the title of "All State Manager."

He was a man that devoted his time to the welfare and comfort of the team.

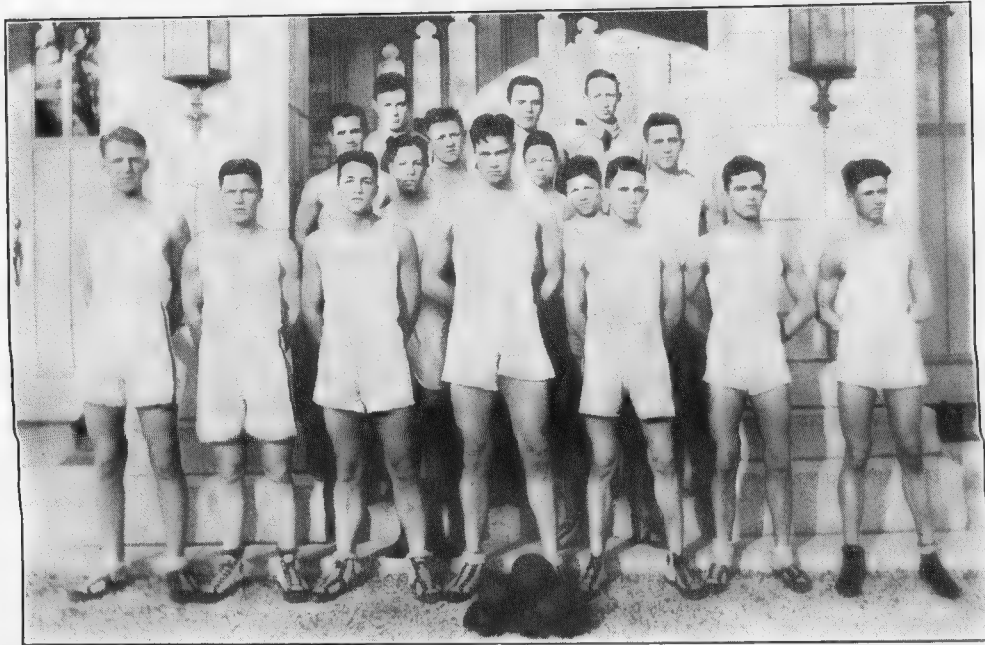

We hope Henry will be with us next year.

BOXING

Boxing History

This popular sport started at A. M. A. during the winter season of 1924-25, but we did not compete with other schools until 1926.

Since then it has made rapid progress at this school, as it has at many other prep school and colleges in this country.

With the assistance of several members of the faculty and the cadets, we were able to win the Southern Invitational Tournament at the University of Virginia in competition with several strong teams of this part of the United States.

Boxing Resume

Once again our boxers have added glory to the annals of A. M. A. athletic achievement. We do not have to say that the boxing team was good, because their enviable record speaks for itself.

The season started with a meet with the Washington and Lee freshmen and, although the men had had time for very little practice, they brought home the mythical bacon. After that the boys literally sailed through the remainder of the season. V. M. I. was the second to succumb to the onslaughts of our maulers. A week later Greenbrier went into a veritable barrage of Augusta fists and came out on the losing end to the tune of 6-1. Next, Blackstone's scalp was added to the list and, finally, the dream of every ambitious boxing team came true! We won the state meet!!!! Captain Copps, with Bovee, Powell, Woods, McClung, Founds, Davilla, and Quisenberry, tightened their belts and their muscles and headed for Charlottesville, accompanied by their versatile coach, Captain Denton. Copps, Bovee, Founds, and Davilla weathered the preliminaries and semi-finals and were placed in the final rounds. Copps and Founds won their bouts by knockouts, while Bovee and Davilla lost by the referee's decision. The tournament ended with A. M. A., 16; Oak Ridge, 14; and S. M. A. and Bellfonte tied with eleven points each. The team returned with the coveted cup, and we hope that we may continue to hold it in our possession.

COPPS

CAPTAIN

Unlimited—we all know what “Mike” did on the mat, and of his wonderful work. “Mike” made a name for himself that will be long remembered in the boxing annals of Augusta. If an opponent stayed more than one round with “Mike,” it was considered an unusual occurrence, and, when “Mike” threw one of his terrific punches at an opponent, that opponent usually went down for the count. As a captain and a leader, “Mike” knew no equal, and we know that his place next year will be hard to fill.

WOODS

ASSISTANT CAPTAIN

145-pound class—“Jackie” was known to us for his splendid work in the years previous and the reputation he made for himself. This year, as usual, “Jackie” fought his way to a high place on the team. To him we give the credit of being the most scientific boxer on the team, his nerve and deadly sureness being an unmistakable proof of this. “Jackie” confronted many hard and experienced opponents this year, and they all received a great deal more than they expected. We are sorry to lose him, and we wish him all the luck in the world in the future.

BOVEE

175-pound Class—“Bevo” upheld the season in his usual manner by defeating his first opponent. Gene made quite a name for himself here last year when he, as a “rat,” stepped up and took charge of all the other competitors in class. Woe be unto the man that got within reach of his powerful uppercut, for that punch has been the undoing of many an ambitious boxer. “Bevo” always gave a good scrap, and with his determination and unbreakable spirit he has made a name that will not soon erase itself from our memories.

DAVILLA

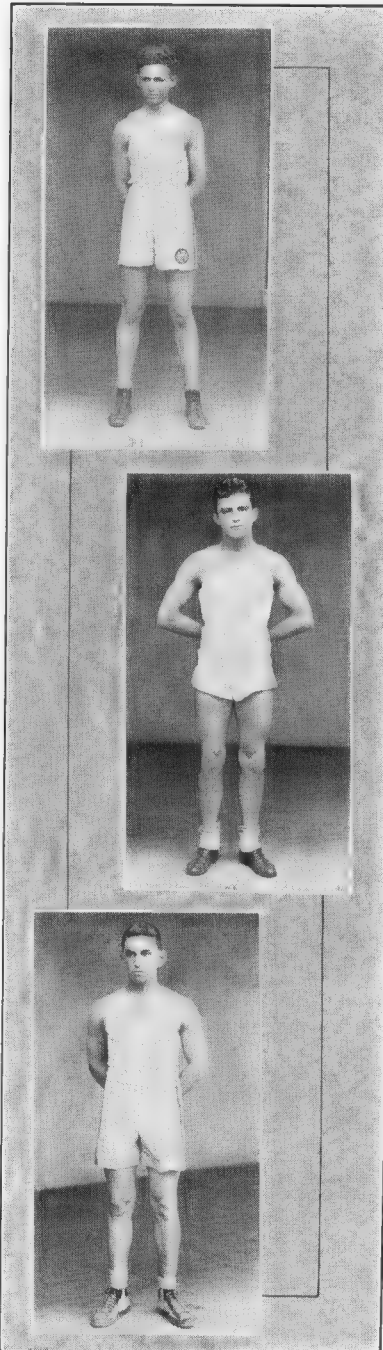

115-pound class—Davilla found himself in the intermural boxing meets this year, and was persuaded to come out for boxing. He soon surprised us all by rapidly developing into a fast, excellent boxer. We make particular mention to his fast work on the mat, his quick eye, his hard, accurate punch, and his lightness on his feet. He caused many opponents constant worry and bruised bodies. We hope that Davilla will be with us again next year.

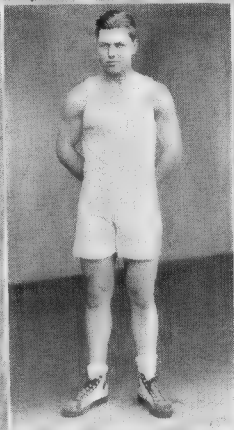

FOUND

125-pound class—"Mel" made an excellent reputation as a boxer last year, and this year he lived up to more than our expectations. From the start of the season he was a clean, hard fighter, one of whom August was proud to call her own. His calmness and sureness in the ring, his hard drawing punches, which always had telling effect upon his opponet, his lightning quickness and fairness, make him one of the most outstanding boxers of the year. He added to his laurels by memory the 125-pound championship in the South Atlantic Meet. Augusta will be sorry to lost him, and we hope him the best of luck.

McCLUNG

135-pound class—"Mac" gave us all a surprise this year by developing into a splendid boxer. He put his heart willingly in the grinding work of training day after day and his work on the mat soon showed the results. "Mac's" pile-driving punches was his outstanding feature, and that punch was known for the terrific force it carried behind it, and the effect of the compact on his luckless opponent. He had the grit and determination which go to make a successful boxer, and was able to take punishment as well as give it. We sincerely hope that "Mac" will be with us again next year.

POWELL, L.

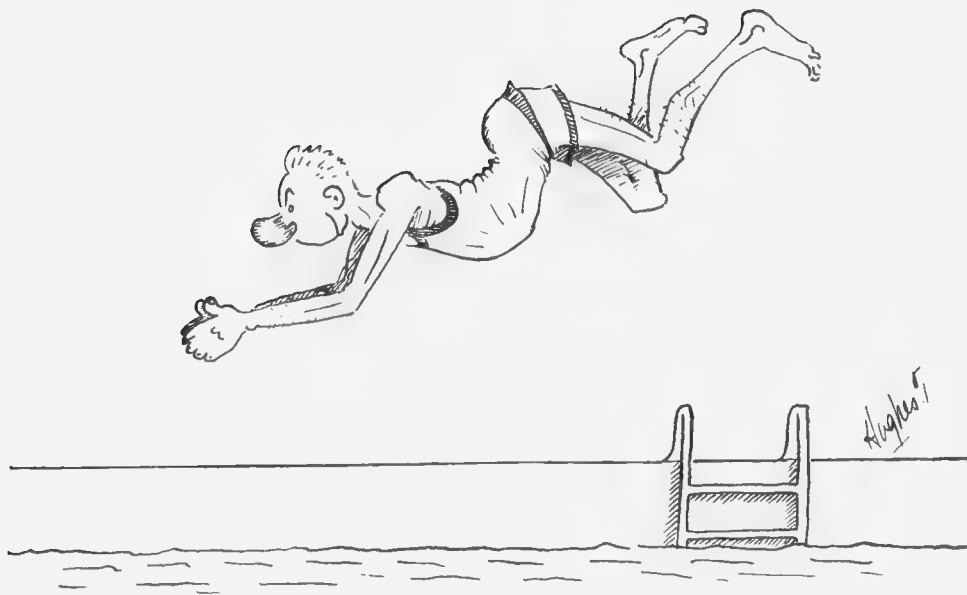

158-pound class—"Stag" gave us the greatest surprise of the year by suddenly coming to the front and developing into a boxer of great prowess. He is noted in that he filled the most difficult position on the team. "Stag's" punch was our pride and joy, and when we heard that "resounding smack" on the person of some unfortunate we generally knew that a knockout was close at hand. We have never known him to give ground, and it was noticeable that his opponent was always the one to back away. It gives us pleasure to say that we hope to have "Stag" with us again next year.

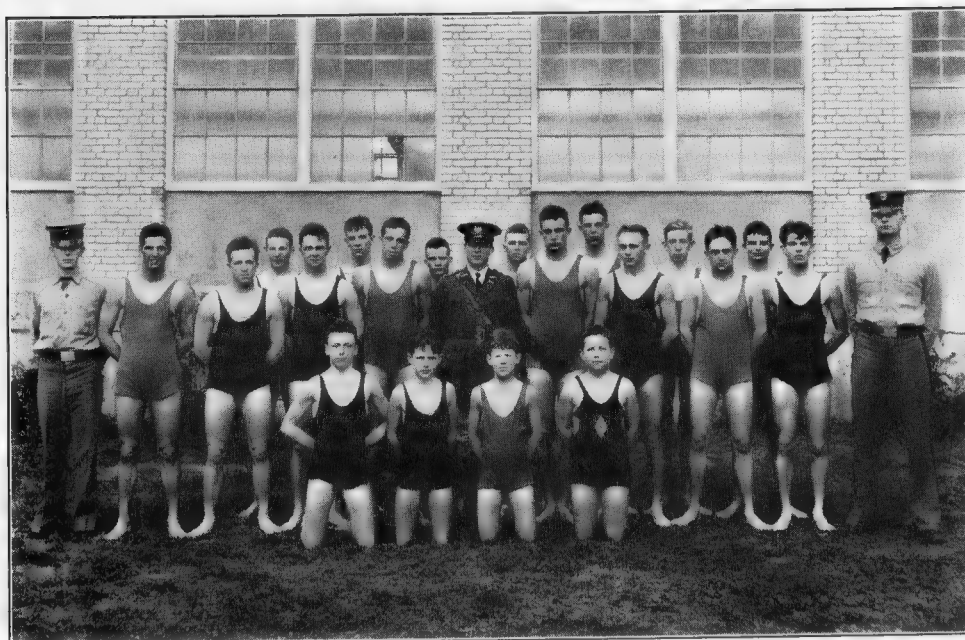

TAYLOR, R.

MANAGER

"Fats" threw himself whole-heartedly into the management of a most difficult job. In a manner that is characteristic of his bulldog tenacity he stuck to his job at all times, and when any member of the team needed anything from shoes to adhesive tape, he could always depend on "Fats."

Swimming Resume

The season of 1930 was the most successful one that the Augusta tankmen have ever had, winning all of their meets in the State and once again adding the State Championship to their belt.

During the season, Augusta defeated Fishburne twice, Massanutten twice, Virginia Freshmen twice, and only lost to Mercersburg and Tome.

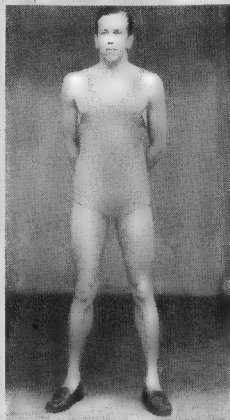

The most outstanding swimmer on the team was Captain Henry Kirn. Henry could always be counted on to win the 50-yards and 100-yards, free style. Last year he held the record for the 100-yards in the pool at the University of Virginia, and this year he set a new record for the 50-yard dash with the time of 24.4 for the distance. The swimming team will surely feel the great loss of Kirn for the coming season.

Harley, Barnes, and Graves did wonderful work in the dives this year. Harley, who was second high point man, always took first place in this event and displayed good form. Barnes and Graves also showed splendid form on the board and we are glad to say that we will have them back with us for the next season.

Taggart, Adams, J., and Goodwin always managed to collect several points in each meet, and each of them got enough first places and a sufficient number of points to entitle them to a Major Monogram for their steady performances during the entire season.

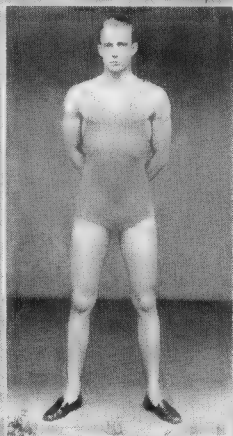

King, Thomas, and Fitch were some newcomers on the team, and they showed up well in their events.

Much credit is due Captain Deane for his tireless efforts with the team. He was always ready to give advice and help his men iron out their little defects.

KIRN

"Henry," captain of this year's team, lived up to his reputation as a fast swimmer. We could always count on him for several first places. Henry holds the state record in the 50-yard dash with 24.3, and also the U. of Va. pool record in the 100-yard swim in 59.4. We are unfortunate in losing him next year, but we are sure he will continue to break records wherever he goes.

GOODWIN

"Bunny" was back with us again this year for the fourth time. His years of experience have made an excellent swimmer of him, and the holder of the school record of the 220-yard dash. "Bunny" is also passing on to other fields this year. Good luck to you, "Bunny."

HARLEY

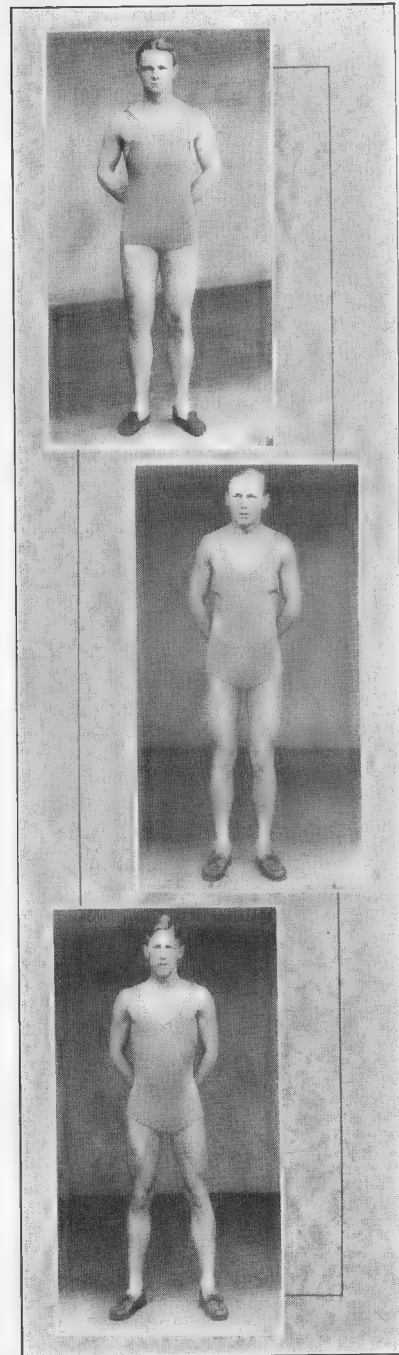

"Bob" always managed to hold down the dives for us again for the third time. Dives were Bob's specialty, but he also showed his ability in the breaststroke. He was among the first for the high honors of high point man and only missed it by a few points.

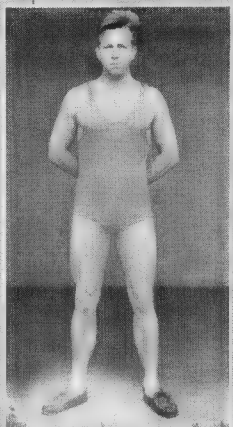

ADAM, J.

"Jim" turned out for several events this year, among his best being the 50-yard dash, backstroke, and relay. Jim afforded plenty of competition for his opponents, and never finished without putting up a good fight.

TAGGART, R.

"Riny" never entered the pool without spoiling someone's hopes for first place. Though he was handicapped during the season with a bad case of wheeze, he gave his best to the team.

BARNES

In "Jimmy" we were certain to take a place in the dives and in the breaststroke. He holds the school record in the breaststroke with the time of 33.4 seconds. "Jimmy" was one of the high point men this year as well as last. We regret to have to lose him after such a successful season.

BLETHEN

The swimming team was very fortunate in having "Judge" for its manager. Having managed other teams, he knew exactly what to do and was always willing and on the job. We regret very much that "Judge" will not be back next year, for we feel sure that his place will be a hard one to fill.

We are proud to say that A. M. A. has never been defeated by any other prep school or high school in wrestling.

We again claim the championship of the State of Virginia in this sport.

PRYOR—125-POUND CLASS

"Goat," our esteemed captain, has done most for the team. For three years he has held his class, and undefeated. Lowey is quick and cool, two necessary qualities in this sport, and also strong. When we lose him, we lose a star, for we shall never have another like him. Here's success, "Goat."

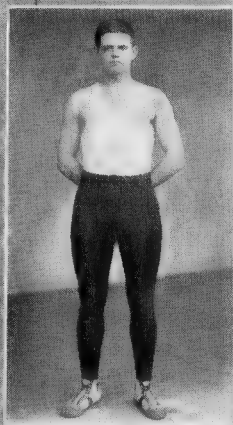

COPPS, M.—UNLIMITED CLASS

Mike as the old standby for everything requiring brawn and brains, is our undefeated third year man, the pride of the team. Mike's successes are due not only to his strength, but also to his experience and science, in which he most decidedly does not lack, as many can attest. We are very sorry to lose our "BIG" Classman, but he is sure to progress wherever he goes. Good luck, Mike!

HUSSEY—115-POUND CLASS

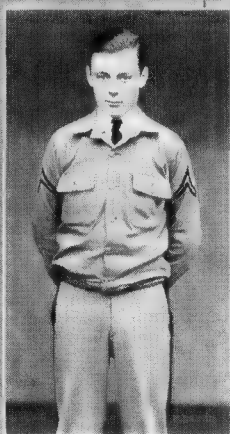

Thad, three years an outstanding member of the squad, is one of our most reliable matmen. He can be depended on to give his best, which nine times out of ten is sufficient to bring his opponent to rest flat! Thad is one of our most efficient men. We regret very much to lose little Thad. Good luck.

DORSEY—175-POUND CLASS

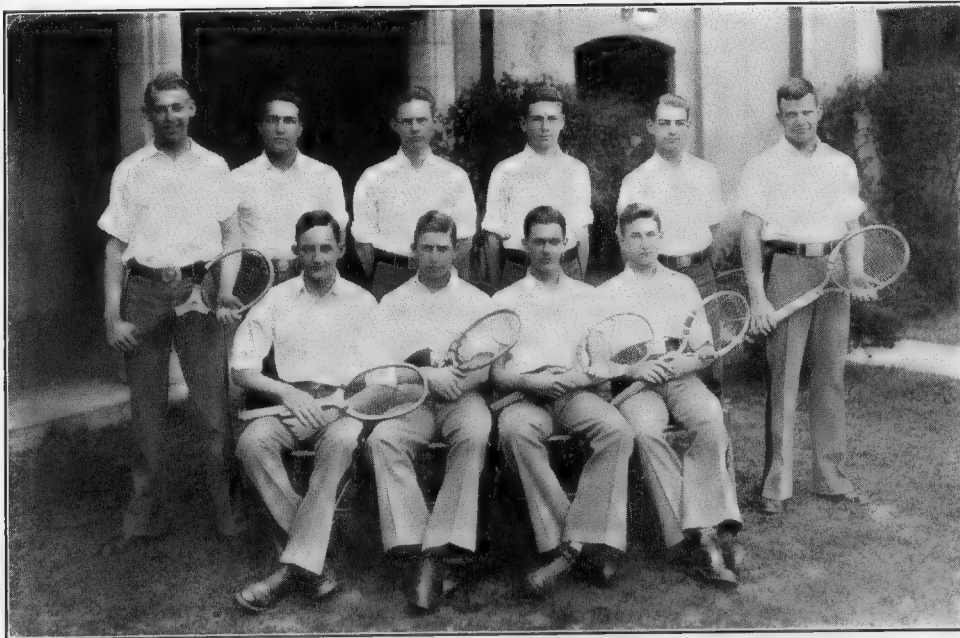

Dorsey has wrestled for the Blue and White for three years, and has given his all for the team. Although he did lose a few of his bouts, they were mostly to the result of over exercise, and not incapability. We are sure Frank will be successful in the future, but we are sorry he will not be with us. Keek up the good work.

TAYLOR

MANAGER

"Fats" was an ideal manager—in fact, the best we have ever had. He took the blunts of the team and was always on the alert. We certainly hope he will be with us next year.

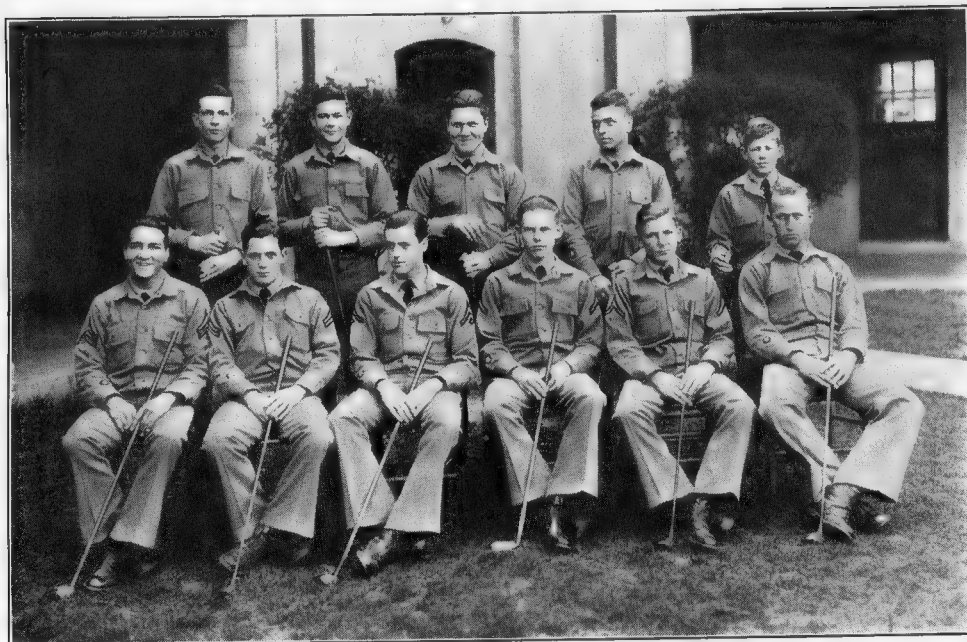

Tennis Club

Although all tennis matches are intermural there is quite a bit of competition among the cadets. We have several outstanding players whom we hope will be back next year.

Tennis, though not a major sport, is a very popular pastime for those who are not out for other forms of athletics.

Here's hoping that our tennis team will be able to meet teams from other schools in the near future—at least, we're sure that they'll hold their own.

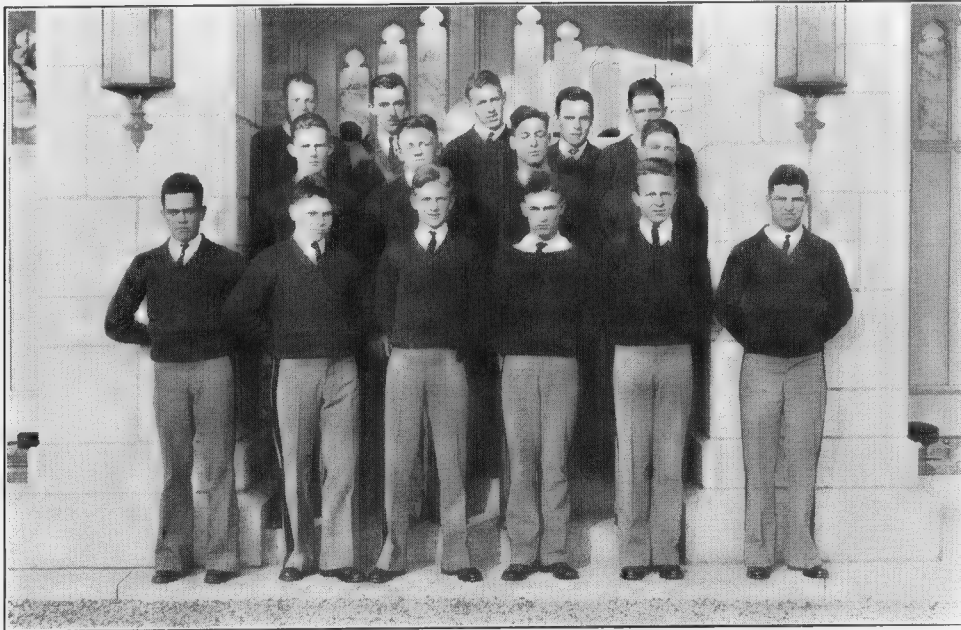

Golf Team

Since golf was invented, young men have been its most numerous followers. This holds true at Augusta. Unfortunately, however, the cadets have been unable to enjoy the luxury of a regular course, and have been forced to confine their play to the pasturage and drill field about the campus. This year, however, Major Roller secured golf privileges for the golfers of the school at the Stonewall Jackson Club. This course is an excellent one, and has been praised by many famous players. The rates are especially low, and yet include full privileges in locker room and course.

For those unable to get away, a small nine-hole course has been constructed on the grounds, and offers good practice and much pleasure. The cadets are fortunate, indeed, to have much easy access to both course and club. No doubt the system will be improved in the coming years, and we may safely say that some day the school will run a real course of its own.

On account of the above difficulties the team had no meets in the past year, but many of our rivals have challenged us to matches, and we will probably accept these challenges next year. And then we shall see!

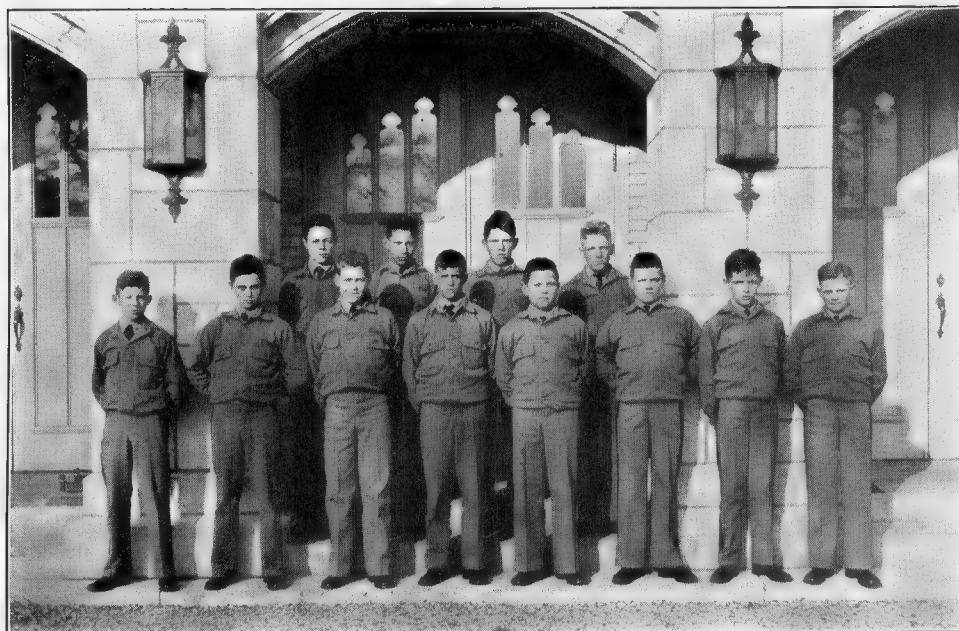

The Tigers

The first Tiger team was started in 1927, with Captain Kellog as a coach. Later, Major Yates took over this job, and during the past year Capt Ott has had charge of them.

Since their origin, the Tigers have always turned out good teams. They kept up to their standard this year on football, basketball, and baseball.

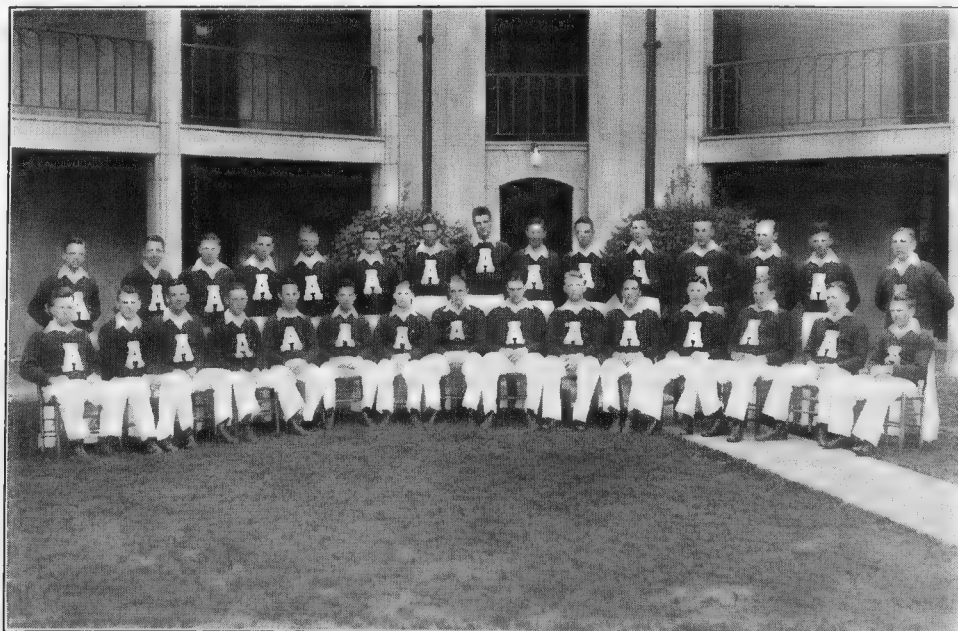

Many a dark horse has been discovered for the Varsity teams through the Tigers. In fact, most all of our present stars received their start through this team.

The Tiger teams have been very victorious this year, and have made quite a few trips to nearby schools. At this time we cannot say for sure that they will continue for the rest of the season with a clean slate, but things look very promising. Here's hoping them the best of luck.

Minnows

The "Minnow" football team was organized in 1925 by boys who were yet too small to aspire to Varsity or Second String fame. So well did this team show up that it was continued the succeeding years. As time went on, baseball, basketball, and swimming were added to the sports in which the "Minnows" participated. And their training is such that now many of our Major Monogram stars are former members of that small boys' squad. In that team are trained our future captains and record-breakers. We sincerely hope that Captain Revely, who has coached untiringly these teams for many years, will continue to turn out as successful stars in the future as he has in the past.

Ad Astra Per Aspera

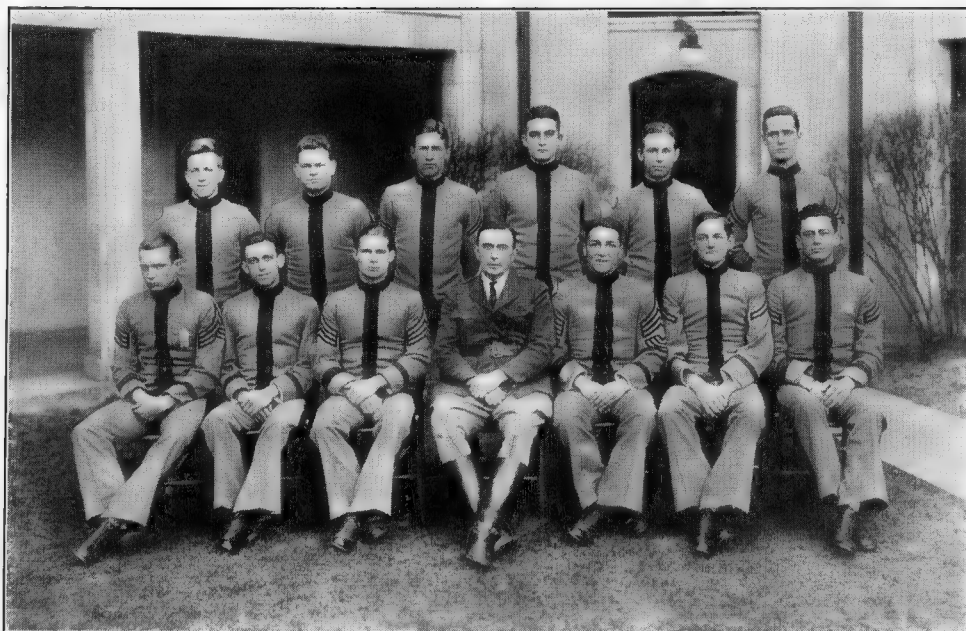

The Ad Astra Per Aspera Fraternity was founded at the Augusta Military Academy June 3, 1925, by Major Chas. S. Roller, Jr. Its Motto is:

*"We Do Not Court Popularity but
We Do Place Service Above Self
and Loyalty Next to Godliness."*

To be a member of the Ad Astra Per Aspera Fraternity is the Highest Honor that can be conferred upon a cadet of the Augusta Military Academy. The election is made in June of each year by the votes of the ten members of the faculty who have been in the service of the Academy the longest. Each faculty member votes for ten cadets who in his opinion have the highest character, most loyal and who have done most for the school and for others while attending Augusta.

The ten cadets receiving the greatest number of votes from the faculty selection are elected to be members of the Ad Astra Per Aspera Fraternity. There are three members of this Fraternity in the Corps now who are as follows:

CADET CAPTAIN WILLIAM CORNELIOUS LAMBERT
CADET CAPTAIN JAMES LOUIS PRYOR
CADET CAPTAIN BERNARD CARLYLE GOODWIN, JR.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. at Augusta is one of the strongest institutions in the school. It has been a tradition here for more than a score of years. In the early days it was known as Mr. Charles Summerville Roller's Bible Class. From that it developed into what is now termed the Y. M. C. A. at Augusta.

The "Y" is held every Sunday night at eight o'clock in the Academic Building. The association is very fortunate indeed in having the services of Mrs. Warren S. Robinson who plays the piano and has charge of all musical programs. In former times the Y. M. C. A. was composed of an average of almost three-fourths new cadets, but now, in the new era of the organization, there are generally more old cadets in attendance than the new which speaks well of the "Y" and shows a decided improvement.

Captain Webb, the faculty adviser, is the man to whom the credit should go for all that the Y. M. C. A. has accomplished in the past few years. He has shown more than the ordinary amount of interest in the work and it is greatly due to his efforts that our organization is now equal to that of any in the country.

Recall Staff

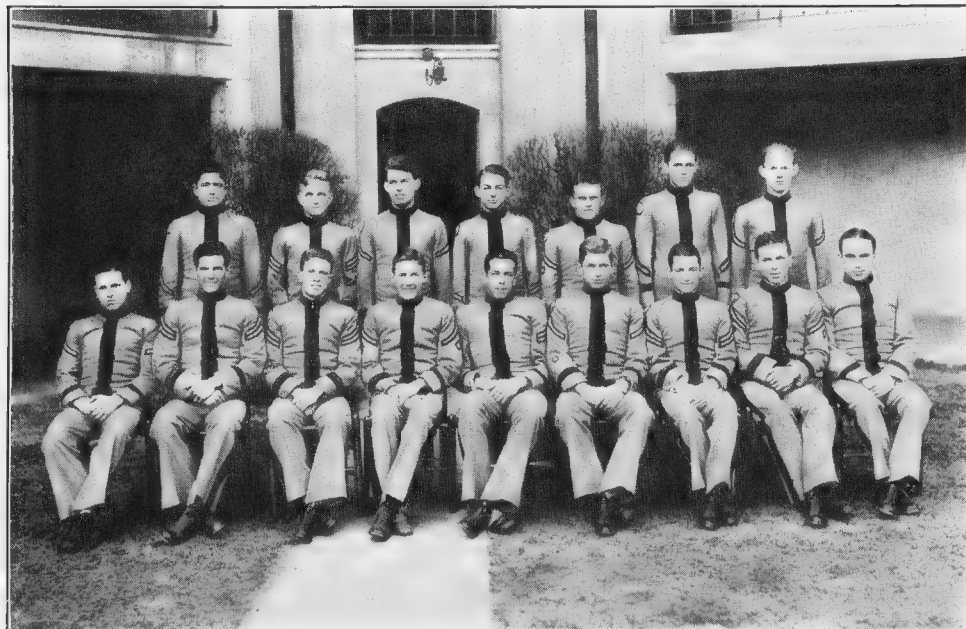

In editing this book we, the staff of the RECALL, have delved deep into the events and happenings of the past year. These incidents have brought to us happy thoughts and fond memories of the days which we consider the brightest and which we hope we may cherish longest in our hearts. It is our earnest hope that each cadet will hold, as a keepsake and a memory, this, the RECALL of nineteen-thirty.

The Bayonet Staff

In the past the weekly edition known as the Bayonet was published under the name of The Cadet. It was changed this year due to the fact that several other near by schools call their weekly paper The Cadet also.

These Bayonets were published by different platoons every two weeks. The first platoon of "A" Co. started things off at the beginning of the year with a splendid issue and this standard was upheld throughout the term by each successive Platoon down to the C. W. Co. With the splendid advice and able supervision of Captain Stout these Bayonets turned out extraordinarily well. A new staff was selected for each publication from the platoon putting it out. The editors and assistant editors of these issues go together to make up the Bayonet Staff of 1929-30.

Dances 1929-1930

The Cotillion Club of 1929-30 has directed an exceptionally fine year of dances, both formal and informal. It was our good luck to enjoy four of the former and twelve of the latter. The informals were short, gloom-dispersing affairs, short in length but much enjoyed by those attending. The "Cadet Ramblers," our own orchestra, furnished the music for all of the informals.

Under the able direction of Cadets B. C. Goodwin, president of the Cotillion Club; J. L. Pryor, vice-president; M. J. Copps, secretary; W. S. Jordan, treasurer, and Cadets A. J. Blethen, J. G. Woods, Henry Kirn, C. W. Lambert, F. Hargrave, F. Dorsey, R. E. Taggart, and T. J. Hughes, A. M. A. has passed the year with four tremendously successful balls.

The fall term was socially closed with the Thanksgiving Hops, celebrating a victorious season in football. The formal ball was led by Cadet M. J. Copps and Miss Tillie Maupin, assisted by Cadet B. C. Goodwin and Miss Jene Trotman. The "Carolina Tarheels" furnished the delightful music, which everyone enjoyed.

On March 14th and 15th, the mid-winter dances were held. These were led by Cadet J. L. Pryor with Miss Frances Taylor, assisted by Cadet Stanley Bach with Miss Connie Quarrels. One of the best enjoyed features of this dance was the music of the Virginia "Cavaliers."

Government Inspection, May 2nd, ushered in the Easter dances. The crowning glory of this affair was Russ Balling's "Cotton Pickers," who made gaiety and pleasure last long into the night and morning. Cadet B. C. Goodwin and Miss Lib Lowry led. He was ably assisted by Cadet J. Louis Pryor with Miss Frances Taylor.

The last and most spectacular undertaking of our Cotillion Club was the Final Ball. To this affair every cadet goes, where he catches his last glimpse of the social side of the school for that year. The Gym was gorgeously decorated, and the music sublime. This magnificent ball was directed and led by Cadet J. Louis Pryor with Miss Frances Taylor. Aiding Cadet Pryor were Cadet B. C. Goodwin with Miss Mary Scott Martin, and Cadet W. S. Jordan with Miss Minnie Miller Cord.

Final Ball

THE shades of the session of 1929-30 closed in, our memories were stamped with the remembrance of the most successful and colorful final ball in the history of Augusta.

No small part of the credit for this exotic affair is due to President J. L. Pryor, assisted by the untiring efforts of the other members of the committee. Our fondest hopes were far surpassed by the beauty and elegance of the artistic decorations, from whose multi-colored array emerged the blue and white of the Academy. In the far corners were placed gorgeous palms.

Not the slightest of the many factors of this affair was the excellent music of Bill Stricklen's "Capitolians," who held sway our dancedom from start to finish.

The main feature of the ball was the Officers' figure, whose intricate and lovely formations were executed by the couples in a rhythmic and beautiful co-ordinating tread. The girls were charmingly clad in pure white, delicately toned by the corsages which they wore. The cadets completed a picture of astonishing splendor, adding gray and gold to the other numerous tints. The figure was closed by the presentation of exquisite gifts to the ladies participating. Leading were Cadet J. Louis Pryor with Miss Frances Taylor, assisted by Cadet B. C. Goodwin with Miss Mary Scott Martin and Cadet W. S. Jordan with Miss Minnie Miller Cord.

After a short pause, the spell which the figure had caused was broken by the blare of trumpets, as the orchestra broke into action. The red hot jazz sent the couples whirling about the floor. Punctuated only by a few brief rests and specials, this pace was kept up 'till intermission. During this period sandwiches and punch were served to the unembarrassed couples and their admiring audience. Soon, however, the ball was again in progress, this time to cease only at the finis.

While the first red gleam, which betokens the coming day, was shining, the last sad notes of "Home, Sweet Home" died away. Thus ended a ball which has been untouched or equaled in the past.

Class Prophecy

THE doorbell rang. I slowly rose and opened the door to receive a messenger, who smilingly handed me a telegram and departed. I quickly tore the message open and read the following: "The Governor of Georgia requests your immediate presence at the state prison to attend a trial."

Much elated over receiving an invitation from a governor, I hastily packed a few clothes and called a taxi. Arriving a few minutes later at the station, I secured a ticket to Columbus, where the prison was located.

As I passed through the station, the ring of a familiar voice came to my ear; turning to investigate, I noticed a person in a neat blue uniform with a megaphone in his hand. Looking a little closer, I recognized the face of my old friend, "Bunny" Goodwin, who had been declared the best train announcer in the country. Being in a hurry to make my train, I turned in my original direction.

Before long, the train pulled out and the journey started. Down the aisle I heard the customary "Ticket, please." I took my ticket, and as the conductor approached I turned to hand it to him and encountered none other than Al Koch, who promptly insisted that I ride free of charge to Columbus, which, without hesitation, I accepted.

About one o'clock I strolled into the diner. Met by the steward, who rushed up at my approach, and grabbed me by the sleeve and exclaimed, "Don't you remember your old friend, Bob Harley?" "Of course," I replied after a moment's hesitation, as I had not recognized him immediately, due to many pounds of added weight and a double chin. We had quite a little talk, during which I was informed that our old classmate, Pitcairn, had been a cook in his car, but due to his inability to boil water, had just been fired.

After a very pleasant trip the train pulled into Columbus. I secured a porter and rushed to the nearest taxi stand. A cab drew up and I entered it. The driver turned to ask me my destination and, looking up I was surprised to see Hudson. He looked just the same, rather dissipated, but still good looking. After several traffic tie-ups we arrived at the Astor Hotel, which I intended to make my headquarters during my stay. As I entered, a rather long form in a fancy uniform filled the post of doorman. Having a weakness for uniforms, I stopped to admire it, but was taken back to discover under the visor no other face than that of "Snooks" Jordan.

He told me that he had been kicked out of every other branch of the army, but still determined to wear a uniform, he had secured this position.

Making my way to the desk, I registered and started for the elevator, when a rather short, droopy person with three rows of brass buttons and a pill box hat relieved me of my valise. While in the elevator, I recognized this bellhop as Thad Hussey, who seemed to like his position very much, especially the tips.

That night I went to the executive mansion, where I met and was greeted by none other than Mr. Pryor, the governor himself. He insisted that I come in and sit down. Before long a very good looking girl came in, who, it seemed to me, I had met before. Louis introduced her as his wife. I was dying to ask if it was the girl of whom we had heard so much at school, but thought I had better not. After receiving my instructions to report to the prison next morning, I departed.

It being too early to go to bed, I called a taxi and went to the town's leading speakeasy. On entering, none other than Earl Massie, the proprietor, rushed up to meet me and then escorted me to the best table in the house. Before long the revue started, which turned out to be very good. The star, I learned, was Tommy Hughes, whose song and dance act brought down the place, especially the weaker sex. Very tired, I returned to the hotel for a much needed rest. By the way, the liquor was very excellent.

Bright and early the next morning I drew to the prison, where I was met by a husky blue-clad guard, with a shotgun, and who turned out to be my old friend, Abie Sher. He explained that by his ability he had made a place for himself on the guard.

We entered a large room, where the governor met me and introduced me to the other members of the board, one of whom was Scott Dobson. He was the same, but still clung to that Baltimore drawl. I found later that he was President of the Convicts Uplift Society.

Soon a middle aged man entered the room, bowed profusely to the governor, and introduced himself as Jack Guy Woods, of the State Pen. Mr. Woods seemed in a terrible storm, but true to form, refused to swear or smoke.

Taking our place at the table, the governor explained that the purpose of the meeting was to determine and fix the responsibility for the fire which the week before had swept the prison, claiming the lives of 150 convicts. Next he read the list of the deceased convicts, two of whom happened to be Founds and Whitcomb. My first impulse was to suggest that the guilty man be found and decorated, instead of punished, but I kept silent.

After the warden's statement, the prison chaplain was rushed in. Mr. Pryor introduced him as Brother Bovee, whose wonderful work among the convicts had won him a name. His testimony was rather weak, but to my relief, short. I found out later that his side line was prison bootlegging.

The next witness was a convict named Kirn, who had been serving fifteen years for breaking the Jones Act. Nothing was gained from his statements, except the fact that there had been a fire. Throughout the examination, Convict Kirn complained of a sore foot, but the prison doctor, Jim Adams, refused to excuse him from the ordeal.

Following a week of investigation, the blame was placed on Warden Woods, for being in a general storm during the fire and not releasing the convicts. He took the verdict well, and to assure us of no hard feelings, insisted on reciting for our benefit, the "Henchman."

At the end of the session, Mr. Pryor invited us to inspect the prison. It was rather a dismal hole, but was made brighter by the smiling face of the prison barber and manicurist, a person named Billy Knapp Hathaway. He told me that he still had six years to serve on a robbery charge, but didn't mind prison life, as he was educated in one.

The last row of cells we inspected was Murderers' Row. There I found John Garber, the local red leader, who was doomed to die for planting a bomb under the house of Judge Blethen, President of the Anti-Saloon League, and local butter and egg man.

Having finished my business at the prison I returned to the hotel to prepare for my trip home. I was graciously loaned the governor's car and chauffeur, who was, he said, a trusty, and also the warden's private truck driver. As he drove me to the hotel he told me that Buck had been deported to Canada the week before for a little second story work.

Just before boarding the train I inspected the town sanitarium, where I found Wheez Taggart, a patient, and Barky Lathrop, an orderly. Soon I found myself on the train and talking to Jack Tillery, the Pullman porter.

Early the next morning I reached home after a hard, but very enjoyable week with my classmates.

"Junior, if you don't keep still I'm going to take you home!"

"Mamma, wanna know how to tell a Bull, huh?"

"Just wait till I get you home, you brat, you."

"There's a bull, Mom; you know how I can tell? See, that——"

"Junior, just keep still, and Mamma will get you anything."

"Mamma, you tell a bull by the ring in his nose!"

"You're fat."

"In the best places they say one is stout."

"Well, in the best places you are fat."

Palmatory: "Yeah, but they fired me."

Hiendl: "What for?"

Palmatory: "Oh, they said I took too much for granite."

Son: "Mother, will A. M. A. cadets go to heaven?"

Ma: "Yes, but they won't like it."

"My ideal of a Cheapskate is a guy who'd reverse charges on a long distance call to the poorhouse," said Matta as he stuffed another cigarette stub into his hod.

Kirn: "Ah! My proud beauty, at last you are in my power."

She: "Well, what are you waiting for?"

Quale: "Something was loose in my car last night."

Slemp: "Was she good looking?"

She: "If you kiss me again like that, I'll slap you."

Harley: "All right, I won't."

She (one hour later): "I didn't say I'd slap hard, did I?"

We often envy Solomon,
His thousand pretty wives.
But what a fix he'd be in
If each led double lives.

One thousand pairs of stockings
To buy would cost some jack.
And think of all those ice-cold feet
Each night upon his back.

"You hit your husband with a chair.
Pray, tell me why you did it, Mabel."
"I did it," sighed the lady fair,
"Because I could not lift the table."

Taxi Driver: "What a clutch?"

Voice from Rear: "Keep your eyes to the front, it's none of your business."

"Mrs. Fontaine is suing the doctor who removed Lieutenant Fontaine's appendix."

"What for?"

"For opening her male."

Cal: "And now, ladies and gentlemen, I pause to ask myself a question."

Voice from Audience: "What a damn silly answer you'll get, too."

Fresh Stranger: "Pardon me, sister, but could you tell me where the post office is?"

Stranger: "Who knows my father was a traveling salesman."

Singer: "And for Annie Laurie, I'd lay me down and die."

Voice from Rear: "Is Miss Laurie in the audience?"

O. D.: "You'll have to take that dog out of barracks."

Cadet: "Oh, that's all right. No one will even know the difference. I call her James!"

Kirn (after scrambling around in the gutter for ten minutes): "I'll climb thish wall if it takes all night."

Geary: "How do you like my action picture of the game?"

Goodwin: "Why, that's just a drawing of the stadium. Where are all the spectators?"

Geary: "Oh, they are at home listening to the game over the radio."

Goodwin: "Well, where are the players?"

Geary: "Oh, it's in between halves and they are in the dressing room."

Goodwin: "If it's in between halves, where is the band?"

Geary: "This is the Ohio game, and they've just formed a big 'Nothing'."

(NOTE:—Mother Mac, Geary is doing as nicely as can be expected.)

Taggart: "Oh! That's my foot; please get off."

Jordan: "Why don't you put your foot where it belongs?"

Taggart: "Don't tempt me, Southall."

After reading "Chic Sale," we wonder if those old Sears Roebuck catalogue wouldn't make useful Christmas gifts to those relatives in the country.

The joy of CREATING!

A truly fine Annual is more than a mere picture book ♦ ♦ ♦
Mirror-like it reflects
the spirit of the school and the character of the class ♦ ♦ ♦ the reflection, unlike the mirror image, is undying, becoming the more beautiful with the mellowness of age. It is worthy of the best.

COMPLETE ANNUAL SERVICE

414 WATER ST., BALTIMORE, MD.

The School Annual

WE DO not think—not publicly, at least—that we are the only people who print school annuals properly. Many printers do as good work as we, and a few do better, perhaps. But those that do better, charge a great deal more. We believe we are the second largest printers of annuals in Virginia. We know that year after year we print the same books, which indicates that our customers like our work. Furthermore we usually do any new annual that is put out in our territory, which indicates that our work is appreciated where we are best known. We always strive to carry out intelligently and in good taste the theme a staff selects. “Intelligence,” “good taste,” what wonderful words are these when applied to an annual. They mean that the printer is to enter into the spirit of the work and transfer to the printed page the vision of beauty pictured in the mind of the editor. They mean that he is to guard the staff against the visionary, the gaudy, and the needlessly expensive, by constructive and conscientious advice.
